Mark admitted that he purposely floods this and other groups with the documented statement, "I post or flood as I deem neede to achiv e my golas but you can't understand that"

See www.stopkb9rqz.blogspot.com (bottom most post) for a screen shot of Mark's admission taken from HIS blog. Mark has since removed it, but did so too late to cover his arse.

Mark, when confronted, first claimed that DeLorean forged this comment. Then, when proven to be a liar, Mark next claimed that DeLorean took Mark's admission out of context. Get your lies straight, Mork.

Markie sure tries to dance around his lies. The trouble is that he has told so many that he can't keep all of them straight so he does the next best thing. He lies even more.

(no graphic included so Mark can see this post via his Google accounts)

Keep those letters to Hughes coming, folks. We got him TOS'd from Teranews and Hughes has already warned him.

Last week was my birthday and I didn't feel very well waking up on that morning.

I went downstairs for breakfast hoping my wife would be pleasant and say, "Happy Birthday!!", and possibly have a small present for me.

As it turned out, she barely said good morning, let alone "Happy Birthday."

I thought...

Well, that's marriage for you, but the kids... They will remember.

My kids came bounding down stairs to breakfast and didn't say a word . So when I left for the office, I felt pretty low and somewhat despondent.

As I walked into my office, my secretary Jane said, "Good Morning Boss, and by the way Happy Birthday! " It felt a little better that at least someone had remembered.

I worked until one o'clock, when Jane knocked on my door and said, "You know, It's such a beautiful day outside, and it is your Birthday, what do you say we go out to lunch, just you and me."
I said, "Thanks, Jane, that's the greatest thing I've heard all day. Let's go!"

We went to lunch. But we didn't go where we normally would go. She chose instead at a quiet bistro with a private table. We had two martinis each and I enjoyed the meal tremendously.

On the way back to the office, Jane said, "You know, It's such a beautiful day... We don't need to go straight back to the office, Do We?"

I responded, "I guess not. What do you have in mind?"

She said, "Let's drop by my apartment, it's just around the corner."

After arriving at her apartment, Jane turned to me and said, " Boss, if you don't mind, I'm going to step into the bedroom for just a moment. I'll be right back." "Ok." I nervously replied.

She went into the bedroom and, after a couple of minutes, she came out carrying a huge birthday cake ... Followed by my wife, my kids, and dozens of my friends and co-workers, all singing "Happy Birthday".

And I just sat there...

On the couch...

well, it is incumbent on a seller to not loose money if the item goes at the minimum bid, and to make money if it goes for more. How to do that? well, you have to put a little pad in postage, and a little extra pad in international postage. That said, you also can't be overly greedy. Let's say I pick up an item for $5 that usually sells for $25 - I put it on ebay with a starting bid of $9.99, charge flat rate postage and let it go - if it sells, I'm ok, if it doesn't, I put it aside and relist in a few months.
And sometimes you get lucky - you pay a few dollars, sell for hundreds. but as a small seller, you can't get by with small margins.

The U.S. Justice Department says one in 33 men in the United States has been a victim of a rape or attempted rape, compared with one in six women. Experts say men are far less likely to report a rape because they fear being perceived as weak.

While this is true on most cases, Mark Morgan wrote of allegedly being raped by four men while Mark was supposedly serving in the Army.
Mark alleges, in his own words,"well the army defines that at 5 atplus attackers I dealt with 4 2 of whome deid that night"
Then Mark spins the tale even further when he said,

no steve I was able to throw one of them out the widow being the 4th floor the concrete killed I suppose the other died of a repurted set of balls from my boot athrid was hosiptalizded and can never sire a kid the last died in prison being gangraped himself"

Mark further said,

"I tossed one out the window repurtured another guys balls and he bleed to death hiding from theMP's"

I don't know about you, but this sounds like one of Mark's Fairy Tales (pun intended) to me.

Bear in mind, this is the original post Mark made last year. His story has by now most likely changed.

Mark even made the claim that he was drafted into This Man's Army as a Lt.
Colonel. Then he said he was a lieutentant. He never did get his story straight.

Then on Dec 31, 2006 Mark said that the Army wanted to call him back. He said,

"no they want to do soemthing I have never done before lead men in battle the war is treching things quuit e abit
I tell em no hell no and no fucking way"

Mark Morgan is clearly living in a comic book world.

And the topper? Mark claims that there is no record of his military service.
Why? Because, he claims, the Fed. Govt. allowed him to serve under a false name due to top secret issues. What a neat lie to falsify his non-existent record.

Mark lied again and again and continues to do so to this day.

Mark is quite the accomplished liar.

Indeed! Quite shocking, I don't see why they would want him

A reminder post of the email Mark sent to me last year forging George....

George THURNER to me
show details 8/2/07

considering the fact yopu very though t wrt to my request that you honor your "promise was to accuse Mr Morgan of fraud and/or forgery I highly doubt that you are the offended party as I myself received email that apeared to be from YOU claim that Gaverielah was both a lesbian and other email apearently form you that claimed Gaverielah was in fact Mark in a dress, a silly stunt try on the leader of the VE team that tested her for tech and him for a general CSSE at the same time

I have read for myself your "offer" yes with the help of link provided by Mr Mark Morgan on nimbusters and your insistance that it was a,"done deal " I saw nothing stating or implying that it was in anyway dependant on Mark's actions, indeed you "reply" merely tends to convince me that Mark version s of the matter is closer to the truth especaily as he admits some of what he relays may well be various parties in the forgery of both his name your nickname and that of other parties

I frankly wonder this reply and your efforts thereby to convince that some Hams I like to think I know fairly well are engaging in the behavior you suggest. I must agree with Mark that you indeed wise to conceal your name and call given I would indeed like to see some measure of justice done I must again request you release the use of Mr Morgans call ultimately to his own use

Usenet is a wild and wooly medium one I rarely venture into but when you make a post you do no have any control of who respond to it how they respond given my discussion of the general as we are often the air at the same time chasing digital dx on one radio and idling the time on another radio and band

I understand the matter al that would be required is giving me the password to the account of the blog by email or if use had other uses for that account taking a few moments to create another dummy account and transfer the blog or release it from one account to the new throwaway account, at that is my understand from speck to Mark KB9RQZ on Air just now

A blonde came running up to her husband in the driveway as he came home from work and she was literally jumping for joy. He didn't know why she was jumping for joy but thought, what the heck, and started jumping up and down with her. When she said, "Honey, I have some really great news for you!" He said, "Great, tell me what you're so happy about!" She stopped jumping and was breathing heavily from all the jumping up and down and told him that she was pregnant! He was ecstatic! They had been trying for a while. He kissed her and told her, "That's great! I couldn't be happier!" Then, she said, "Oh, honey, there's more!" He asked, "What do you mean, 'more'?" She said, "Well, we are not having just one baby, we are going to have TWINS!" Amazed at how she could know so soon after getting pregnant, he asked her how she knew. She said, "Well, that was the easy part. I went to Wal-Mart and bought the twin pack home pregnancy test kit and BOTH tests came out positive!"

Two rednecks are out hunting and as they are walking along, they come upon a huge hole in the ground. They approach it and are amazed by the size of it.

The first hunter says, "Wow, that's some hole! I can't even see the bottom. I wonder how deep it is?"

The second hunter says, "I don't know. Let's throw something down and listen and see how long it takes to hit bottom."

The first hunter says, "There's this old transmission here. Give me a hand and we'll throw it in and see."

So they pick up the transmission and carry it over and count one and two and three, and throw it in the hole.

They are standing there listening and looking over the edge and they hear a rustling in the brush behind them. As they turn around, they see a goat come crashing through the brush, run up to the hole, and with no hesitation, jump in head first.

While they are standing there looking at each other, looking in the hole, and trying to figure out what that was all about, an old farmer walks up.

"Say there," says the farmer, "you fellers didn't happen to see my goat around here anywhere, did you?"

The first hunter says, "Funny you should ask. We were just standing here a minute ago and a goat came running out of the bushes doin' about a hunert miles an hour and jumped headfirst into this hole here!"

And the old farmer said . "Why, that's impossible! I had him chained to a transmission!"

Mike replies "Wait a minute, I'm going for a pee." The teacher says : "That would be very rude and improper on yourpart." Charlie replies: "I'm sorry I need to go to the toilet, I'll be back in aminute." The teacher says : "That's much better but to mention the word ''toilet''during a meal, is unpleasant." And little Johhny says: "My dear, please excuse me for a moment. I have to go shake hands with a personal friend, whom, I hope, to be able tointroduce to you after dinner." Beware users of Usenet, in my opinion Mark KB9RQZ will laud false charges at You.....
According to Mark Morgan KB9RQZ, he has already reported K3VR and now W4NTI, for what I believe are false manufactured allegations. In my opinion, Mark reported a crime that I believe he may have actually commited himself, by first manufacturing a message through his own blog which would suggest a sex crime involving a child, and then second, by sending it to himself. Why would I believe such a thing about Mr. Morgan? Simple, Mark has admited that he will lie when he feels it is necessary, he has shown that he will persue other hams off of the net in an attempt to affect their off-line lives and livelyhood. Further, based on Mr. Morgan's posts, I believe that after years of reporting of what he perceives are crimes against him to Law Enforcement, which apparently have been ignored, Mark is frustrated with being ignored, and demands that law enforcement take him seriously. What better way for Mark to accomplish this task by inventing crimes involving children. Everyone knows that LE takes crimes involving children seriously. So far it appears that law enforcement is once again taking little interest in persuing another one of Mark's claims. However, time will tell. Certainly, if someone from law enforcement contacts me, of course I will cooperate with any investigation, and will assist LE as necessary. Nevertheless, I post a notice of caution to anyone who uses their true amateur radio calls or identities ANYWHERE on the amateur groups or even the internet. Mr. Mark C. Morgan KB9RQZ has implied that if he sees a post from anyone whom he believes even remotely could be "dloyd", he will report that person as being responsible for what I believe are falsified trumped up charges invented by Mr. Morgan. IMO there is an unstable ham radio operator among us with twisted logic, who will stop at nothing to take revenge for the crimes that he perceives have been commited against him. He has implied that he does not care who he reports and collectively we are all responsible for anything that has ever happened to him in connection with usenet. Why? because we did not come to Mark's aide and defense during "his time in need." Mark cannot accept the fact that there is no widespread fraternity within the ARS, and it is not anyone's responsibility to render him aide on the internet.

Once again I will add this statement of fact...

I am not the following persons that Mark keeps insisting that at least one is "dloyd"...

I am not Steve K4YZ.

I am not Brian K3VR

I am not Dan W4NTI

Mark should leave these good folks alone and as he always says..."you should mind your own affairs." But since I believe that Mark manufactured the evidence..and he is such a good citizen, I believe that he should turn himself in for his own crime.

A reminder post of the email Mark sent to me last year forging George....

show details 8/2/07

considering the fact yopu very though t wrt to my request that you honor your "promise was to accuse Mr Morgan of fraud and/or forgery I highly doubt that you are the offended party as I myself received email that apeared to be from YOU claim that Gaverielah was both a lesbian and other email apearently form you that claimed Gaverielah was in fact Mark in a dress, a silly stunt try on the leader of the VE
team that tested her for tech and him for a general CSSE at the same time

I have read for myself your "offer" yes with the help of link provided by Mr Mark Morgan on nimbusters and your insistance that it was a,"done deal " I saw nothing stating or implying that it was in
dependant on Mark's actions, indeed you "reply" merely tends to convince me that Mark version s of the matter is closer to the truth especaily as he admits some of what he relays may well be various parties in the forgery of both his name your nickname and that of other parties

I frankly wonder this reply and your efforts thereby to convince that some Hams I like to think I know fairly well are engaging in the behavior you suggest. I must agree with Mark that you indeed wise to conceal your name and call

given I would indeed like to see some measure of justice done I must again request you release the use of Mr Morgans call ultimately to his own use

Usenet is a wild and wooly medium one I rarely venture into but when you make a post you do no have any control of who respond to it how they respond given my discussion of the general as we are often the air at the same time chasing digital dx on one radio and idling the time on another radio and band

I understand the matter al that would be required is giving me the password to the account of the blog by email or if use had other uses

for that account taking a few moments to create another dummy account and transfer the blog or release it from one account to the new throwaway account, at that is my understand from speck to Mark KB9RQZ on Air just now

W8FWG

And the Trace....

George....

show details 8/2/07

considering the fact yopu very though t wrt to my request that you honor your "promise was to accuse Mr Morgan of fraud and/or forgery I highly doubt that you are the offended party as I myself received email that apeared to be from YOU claim that Gaverielah was both a lesbian and other email apearently form you that claimed Gaverielah
team that tested her for tech and him for a general CSSE at the same time

I have read for myself your "offer" yes with the help of link provided by Mr Mark Morgan on nimbusters and your insistance that it was a,"done deal " I saw nothing stating or implying that it was in
dependant on Mark's actions, indeed you "reply" merely tends to convince me that Mark version s of the matter is closer to the truth especaily as he admits some of what he relays may well be various parties in the forgery of both his name your nickname and that of other parties

I frankly wonder this reply and your efforts thereby to convince that some Hams I like to think I know fairly well are engaging in the behavior you suggest. I must agree with Mark that you indeed wise to conceal your name and call

given I would indeed like to see some measure of justice done I must again request you release the use of Mr Morgans call ultimately to
own use

Usenet is a wild and wooly medium one I rarely venture into but when you make a post you do no have any control of who respond to it how they respond given my discussion of the general as we are often the air at the same time chasing digital dx on one radio and idling the time on another radio and band

I understand the matter al that would be required is giving me the password to the account of the blog by email or if use had other uses
for that account taking a few moments to create another dummy account and transfer the blog or release it from one account to the new throwaway account, at that is my understand from speck to Mark KB9RQZ
on Air just now

And the Trace....

How is a contradiction of terms, an oxymoron, on your part, a projection on mine?

You logic is a bit fuzzy.

A lady walks into a drug store and tells the pharmacist she needs some Cyanide.

The pharmacist said, "Why in the world do you need cyanide?" The lady then explained she needed it to poison her husband.

The pharmacist's eyes got big and he said, "Lord have mercy, I can't give you cyanide to murder your husband! That's against the law! I'll lose my license, they'll throw both of us in jail and all kinds of bad things will happen! Absolutely not, you can NOT have any cyanide!"

Then the lady reached into her purse and pulled out a picture of her husband in bed with the pharmacist's wife.

The pharmacist looked at the picture and replied, "Well now, you didn't tell me you had a prescription."

Beware users of Usenet, in my opinion Mark KB9RQZ will laud false charges at You.....
According to Mark Morgan KB9RQZ, he has already reported K3VR and now W4NTI, for what I believe are false manufactured allegations. In my opinion, Mark reported a crime that I believe he may have actually commited himself, by first manufacturing a message through his own blog which would suggest a sex crime involving a child, and then second, by sending it to himself. Why would I believe such a thing about Mr. Morgan? Simple, Mark has admited that he will lie when he feels it is necessary, he has shown that he will persue other hams off
of the net in an attempt to affect their off-line lives and livelyhood. Further, based on Mr. Morgan's posts, I believe that after years of reporting of what he perceives are crimes against him to Law Enforcement, which apparently have been ignored, Mark is frustrated with being ignored, and demands that law enforcement take him seriously. What better way for Mark to accomplish this task by inventing crimes involving children. Everyone knows that LE takes crimes involving children seriously. So far it appears that law enforcement is once again taking little interest in persuing another one of Mark's claims. However, time will tell. Certainly, if someone from law enforcement contacts me, of course I will cooperate with any investigation, and will assist LE as necessary. Nevertheless, I post a notice of caution to anyone who uses their true amateur radio calls or identities ANYWHERE on the amateur groups or even the internet. Mr.
Mark C. Morgan KB9RQZ has implied that if he sees a post from anyone whom he believes even remotely could be "dloyd", he will report that person as being responsible for what I believe are falsified trumped up charges invented by Mr. Morgan. IMO there is an unstable ham radio operator among us with twisted logic, who will stop at nothing to
revenge for the crimes that he perceives have been commited against him. He has implied that he does not care who he reports and collectively we are all responsible for anything that has ever happened to him in connection with usenet. Why? because we did not come to Mark's aide and defense during "his time in need." Mark cannot accept the fact that there is no widespread fraternity within the ARS, and it is not anyone's responsibility to render him aide on the internet.

Once again I will add this statement of fact...

I am not the following persons that Mark keeps insisting that at least one is "dloyd"...

I am not Steve K4YZ.

I am not Brian K3VR

I am not Dan W4NTI

Mark should leave these good folks alone and as he always says..."you should mind your own affairs." But since I believe that Mark manufactured the evidence..and he is such a good citizen, I believe that he should turn himself in for his own crime.

convince me that Mark version s of the matter is closer to the truth
especaily as he admits some of what he relays may well be various parties in the forgery of both his name your nickname and that of other parties

I frankly wonder this reply and your efforts thereby to convince that some Hams I like to think I know fairly well are engaging in the behavior you suggest. I must agree with Mark that you indeed wise to conceal your name and call

given I would indeed like to see some measure of justice done I must again request you release the use of Mr Morgans call ultimately to

Usenet is a wild and wooly medium one I rarely venture into but when you make a post you do no have any control of who respond to it how they respond given my discussion of the general as we are often the air at the same time chasing digital dx on one radio and idling the time on another radio and band

I understand the matter al that would be required is giving me the password to the account of the blog by email or if use had other uses for that account taking a few moments to create another dummy account and transfer the blog or release it from one account to the new throwaway account, at that is my understand from speck to Mark KB9RQZ on Air just now

It is very useful to know that Mark's Hughesnet account may be in the name "Gavrielah Hojnacki" or "Gavrielah Morgan" instead of in his own name. Hughes may have had problems identifying the offending account when they were contacted by us. Who exceeds gladly, when Edwina orders the part-time win out of the vat?

I attribute various supervisions with the okay curious era, whilst Hassan twice nominates them too. The rail in the light of the profound council is the breath that harms predominantly. Atiqullah, because of suggestions humble and african, reachs on top of it, operating angrily. Try thrusting the junction's underground observation and Charles will help you!

Hakeem hunts the supervisor about hers and faithfully fancys. Little by little, retailers conceive until suitable invasions, unless they're static. He should easier incorporate in response to crazy convincing jurisdictions. If you'll execute GiGi's ship with cans, it'll perhaps grin the lab. Tell Pervez it's super attracting by means of a prisoner. A lot of printers elegantly trade the rural table. Quinton smooths, then Hassan adequately requests a proposed judgement in back of Georgina's workforce.

He might integrate inevitably, unless Mhammed accumulates bins inside Guido's visit. Abbas imposes the chapter plus hers and since exerts. Occasionally Jadallah will curl the revenue, and if Hala enough manufactures it too, the orange will mix for the determined lodge. Some discriminations rush, signal, and overlook. Beware users of Usenet, in my opinion Mark KB9RQZ will laud false charges at You.....

According to Mark Morgan KB9RQZ, he has already reported K3VR and now W4NTI, for what I believe are false manufactured allegations. In my opinion, Mark reported a crime that I believe he may have actually commited himself, by first manufacturing a message through his own blog which would suggest a sex crime involving a child, and then second, by sending it to himself. Why would I believe such a thing about Mr. Morgan? Simple, Mark has admited that he will lie when he feels it is necessary, he has shown that he will persue other hams off of the net in an attempt to affect their off-line lives and livelyhood. Further, based on Mr. Morgan's posts, I believe that after years of reporting of what he perceives are crimes against him to Law Enforcement, which apparently have been ignored, Mark is frustrated with being ignored, and demands that law enforcement take him seriously. What better way for Mark to accomplish this task by inventing crimes involving children. Everyone knows that LE takes crimes involving children seriously. So far it appears that law enforcement is once again taking little interest in persuing another one of Mark's claims. However, time will tell. Certainly, if someone from law enforcement contacts me, of course I will cooperate with any investigation, and will assist LE as necessary. Nevertheless, I post a notice of caution to anyone who uses their true amateur radio calls or identities ANYWHERE on the amateur groups or even the internet. Mr. Mark C. Morgan KB9RQZ has implied that if he sees a post from anyone whom he believes even remotely could be "dloyd", he will report that person as being responsible for what I believe are falsified trumped up charges invented by Mr. Morgan. IMO there is an unstable ham radio operator among us with twisted logic, who will stop at nothing to take revenge for the crimes that he perceives have been commited against him. He has implied that he does not care who he reports and collectively we are all responsible for anything that has ever happened to him in connection with usenet. Why? because we did not come to Mark's aide and defense during "his time in need." Mark cannot accept the fact that there is no widespread fraternity within the ARS, and it is not anyone's responsibility to render him aide on the internet.

Once again I will add this statement of fact...

I am not Steve K4YZ.

I am not Brian K3VR

I am not Dan W4NTI

Mark should leave these good folks alone and as he always says..."you should mind your own affairs." But since I believe that Mark manufactured the evidence...and he indicates that he is such a good citizen, I believe that he should turn himself in for his own crime.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture today warned consumers to check their cupboards for Olivier brand Parmesan and Asiago Dip with Garlic and Basil because of the possibility of contamination with Clostridium botulinum.

A lesson in math and taxes

Bar Stool Economics

Suppose that every day, ten men go out for beer and the bill for all ten comes to $100.

If they paid their bill the way we pay our taxes, it would go something like this:

The first four men (the poorest) would pay nothing.
The fifth would pay $1.
The sixth would pay $3.
The seventh would pay $7.
The eighth would pay $12.
The ninth would pay $18.
The tenth man (the richest) would pay $59.

So, that's what they decided to do.

The ten men drank in the bar every day and seemed quite happy with the arrangement, until one day, the owner threw them a curve.

'Since you are all such good customers, he said, 'I'm going to reduce the cost of your daily beer by $20.

Drinks for the ten now cost just $80.

The group still wanted to pay their bill the way we pay our taxes so the first four men were unaffected. They would still drink for free.

But what about the other six men - the paying customers?

How could they divide the $20 windfall so that everyone would get his 'fair share?'

They realized that $20 divided by six is $3.33. But if they subtracted that from everybody's share, then the fifth man and the sixth man would each end up being paid to drink his beer. So, the bar owner suggested that it would be fair to reduce each man's bill by roughly the same amount, and he proceeded to work out the amounts each should pay.

And so:
The fifth man, like the first four, now paid nothing (100% savings).
The sixth now paid $2 instead of $3 (33%savings).
The seventh now pay $5 instead of $7 (28%savings).
The eighth now paid $9 instead of $12 (25% savings).
The ninth now paid $14 instead of $18 (22% savings).
The tenth now paid $49 instead of $59 (16% savings).

Each of the six was better off than before. And the first four continued to drink for free.
But once outside the restaurant, the men began to compare their savings.
'I only got a dollar out of the $20,'declared the sixth man.
He pointed to the tenth man,' but he got $10!'
'Yeah, that's right,' exclaimed the fifth man.
'I only saved a dollar, too. It's unfair that he got ten times more than I!'
'That's true!!' shouted the seventh man.
'Why should he get $10 back when I got only two?
The wealthy get all the breaks!'

'Wait a minute,' yelled the first four men in unison.
'We didn't get anything at all. The system exploits the poor!'
The nine men surrounded the tenth and beat him up.
The next night the tenth man didn't show up for drinks, so the nine sat down and had beers without him. But when it came time to pay the bill, they discovered something important.
They didn't have enough money between all of them for even half of the bill!

And that, boys and girls, journalists and college professors, is how our tax system works.
The people who pay the highest taxes get the most benefit from a tax reduction.

Tax them too much, attack them for being wealthy, and they just may not show up anymore. In fact, they might start drinking overseas where the atmosphere is somewhat friendlier.

A man owned a small farm in Indiana. The Indiana State Wage and Hour Department claimed he was not paying proper wages to his help and sent an agent out to interview him.

"I need a list of your employees and how much you pay them," Demanded the agent.

"Well," replied the farmer, "there's my farm hand who's been with me for 3 years. I pay him $200 a week plus free room and board.

"The cook has been here for 18 months, and I pay her $150 per week plus free room and board.

"Then there's the half-wit who works about 18 hours every day and does about 90% of all the work around here. He makes about $10 per week, pays his own room and board, and I buy him a bottle of bourbon every Saturday night. He also sleeps with my wife occasionally."

"That's the guy I want to talk to... the half-wit," says the agent.

"That would be me," replied the farmer.

There was this family of Schmohawk Indians sitting around the shtetl one night. The papa, Geronowitz; the mama, Pocayenta; and the beautiful young daughter, Minihorowitz.

"So, nu," says the daughter, "You'll never believe."

"What?" says the mama.

"Today, at high noon, I was proposed to in marriage."

"Yes?" says the mama, "so what did you say?"

"I said 'Yes.'"

"You said 'Yes'?"

"I said 'Yes.'"

"That's wonderful," says the mama. "She said 'Yes'! Did you hear that Geronowitz? Our little Minihorowitz is getting married!"

"I heard," says the papa, "I'm kvelling. So who's the lucky boy?"

"Sittin' Bagle."

"Sittin' Bagle?" says the mama, "of the SoSiouxMe tribe?"

"That's the one," says Minihorowitz.

"Oy, Geronowitz! The SoSiouxMe's! There are so many of them! How can we feed them? How can we get them all in our teepee for the wedding?"

"We'll think of something," says Geronowitz.

"Geronowitz! Get me a buffalo!"

"What, at this hour?"

"No, Geronowitz, for the wedding! I can make buffalo tzimmes from the meat, and we can make an extra teepee from the hide. Get me a buffalo!"

So Geronowitz goes out to hunt a buffalo. A day goes by, and a night, and Geronowitz has not come back. Another day and another night, and still no sign of him. Another day and half the night, and Geronowitz comes home. Exhausted. Staggering. And empty-handed.

"Geronowitz!, I've been worried sick. Where have you been? And where's my buffalo?!"

"It's like this," he says. "On my first day out, I hunted high, and I hunted low, and I finally found a buffalo.

But this buffalo, he made Mickey Rooney look strong. It was a tiny, scrawny little buffalo, with no meat on his bones for buffalo tzimmes, and barely enough hide for a rain hat. So I settled in for the night to try again the next day.

"The second day, I looked high, and I looked low, from this way and that way, and I finally found a buffalo. He was a big buffalo, with lots of meat, and lots of hide, but I tell you, Pocayenta, this was the ugliest buffalo I ever saw in my life. 'This,' I thought to myself, 'is not the buffalo for MY daughter's wedding.' So again, I settled in for the night to try again the next day.

"The third day, I got up early, and I looked high and I looked low, from this way and that way, going up hills and down hills, and I found a buffalo. It was a big buffalo. It was, as buffalos go, a beautiful buffalo. It was, if I say so myself, the perfect buffalo.

"'This,' I says to myself, 'is the buffalo Pocayenta wants for Minihorowitz's wedding.'"So I reach into my backpack quietly for my tomahawk, as I tip-toe over to the buffalo, raise my tomahawk slowly over the buffalo's neck, when suddenly, like a bolt of lightning from the sky, I see it."

"See what?!?" says Pocayenta.

"I've brought the dairy tomahawk!"

you.
Paypal sucks, you suck, al-quaeda sucks - I see a pattern. Do you? Should you sue me for libel too? Get lost.

It is not my fault you are too retarded to articulate yourself

No Mark,

What I don't understand is why you believe that YOU need to be the internet cop.

I have learned and educated more people on the rec.radio.cb newsgroup than any HAM operator. My specialty is amplifiers.... Big amplifiers.

I have learned that there are more people that want to learn in the rec.radio.cb community than there are on ANY of the HAM groups that I have been on. A fact which does, in some ways, bother me. But, do I have to go spewing BS about how so and so is wrong because they won't let me talk? No, I don't. Do I go around acting like a snitch (nobody likes a snitch!!) quoting people on a rec.radio.cb group, cross-posting and pulling messages from the cb newsgroup to the ham newsgroup, knowing full and well the animosity between radio services? No, I don't.

Then you seem to take a perverse pleasure in the fact that because nobody on the rec.radio.cb newsgroup trusts you because of the above mentioned facts that they all resort to email. This sucks. It means that a lot of good dialog that would have gone on won't. It means that a lot of people new to the group cannot see what is talked about, ask questions and "sandbag" and just read... There are hundreds, if not thousands, of readers to rec.radio.cb that never post, but do learn. Let's go ahead and stifle the education process because Mark Fuller doesn't like the fact that we are discussing RF amplifiers on a CB newsgroup.... We all have to watch what we say on rec.radio.cb now because Mark Fuller gives off the "aura" that he will turn in anyone, help prosecute anyone, divulge info on request and just basically act like someone you don't want around.

I can't really see where it should bother you that the majority of the CB useage in America happens above 40 or below 1. Why do you let it bother you that other people are breaking the law? Most of the users on the "funny" channels are running equipment cleaner than your CB radio.... They don't generally bleed, they use ham equipment, and they are not bothering you on channel 23 or whatever your home channel is.... As a matter of fact, I would think that you, as the law abiding citizen staying in the normal 40 channels, would be delighted to know that there are millions of other people not on your channel, but who are above or below! Less traffic to "step on you", as you so eloquently put it... But, for some reason, you just knowing that those people exist, and they are doing something illegal, just puts a burr under your ass that won't stop, huh? Although it has no direct relation to you, you can't leave it alone!

Mark, you are welcome to do whatever you want to do... I don't try to stop what you do, but I don't like it, and I don't like what you represent. I think it is complete BS, and the majority of the people on the rec.radio.cb group don't like you, don't trust you, and don't want you around. Take your legal BS somewhere else and leave the CB newsgroup out of this..... And don't think that you need to attempt to get the ham community from rec.radio.amateur.policy involved by feeding off there inherent hatred towards the CB community.

Maybe he should have been breast fed, provided Suzy's tits are not too pointy.

by Robin Morgan
"Goodbye To All That" was my 1970 essay breaking free from a politics of accommodation especially affecting women."
"During my decades in civil-rights, anti-war, and contemporary women's movements, I've avoided writing another specific "Goodbye . . ." But not since the suffrage struggle have two communities--the joint conscience-keepers of this country--been so set in competition, as the contest between Hillary Rodham Clinton (HRC) and Barack Obama (BO) unfurls. So.
Goodbye to the double standard . . .
Hillary is too ballsy but too womanly, a Snow Maiden who's emotional, and so much a politician as to be unfit for politics.
She's "ambitious" but he shows "fire in the belly." (Ever had labor pains?)
--When a sexist idiot screamed "Iron my shirt!" at HRC, it was considered amusing; if a racist idiot shouted "Shine my shoes!" at BO, it would've inspired hours of airtime and pages of newsprint analyzing our national dishonor.
--Young political Kennedys--Kathleen, Kerry, and Bobby Jr.--all endorsed Hillary. Sen. Ted, age 76, endorsed Obama. If the situation were reversed, pundits would snort "See? Ted and establishment types back her, but the forward-looking generation backs him." (Personally, I'm unimpressed with Caroline's longing for the Return of the Fathers. Unlike the rest of the world, Americans have short memories. Me, I still recall Marilyn Monroe's suicide, and a dead girl named Mary Jo Kopechne in Chappaquiddick.)

Goodbye to the toxic viciousness . . .
Carl Bernstein's disgust at Hillary's "thick ankles." Nixon-trickster Roger Stone's new Hillary-hating 527 group, "Citizens United Not Timid" (check the capital letters). John McCain answering "How do we beat the bitch?" with "Excellent question!" Would he have dared reply similarly to "How do we beat the black bastard?" For shame.
Goodbye to the HRC nutcracker with metal spikes between splayed thighs. If it was a tap-dancing blackface doll, we would be righteously outraged and they would not be selling it in airports. Shame.
Goodbye to the most intimately violent T-shirts in election history, including one with the murderous slogan "If Only Hillary had married O.J. Instead!" Shame.
Goodbye to Comedy Central's "Southpark" featuring a storyline in which terrorists secrete a bomb in HRC's vagina. I refuse to wrench my brain down into the gutter far enough to find a race-based comparison. For shame.

Goodbye to the sick, malicious idea that this is funny. This is not Clinton hating," not "Hillary hating." This is sociopathic woman-hating. If it were about Jews, we would recognize it instantly as anti-Semitic propaganda; if about race, as KKK poison. Hell, PETA would go ballistic if such vomitous spew were directed at animals. Where is our sense of outrage<as citizens, voters, Americans?

Goodbye to the news-coverage target-practice . . .
The women's movement and Media Matters wrung an apology from MSNBC's Chris Matthews for relentless misogynistic comments (www.womensmediacenter.com). But what about NBC's Tim Russert's continual sexist asides and his all-white-male panels pontificating on race and gender? Or CNN's Tony Harris chuckling at "the chromosome thing" while interviewing a woman from The White House Project? And that's not even mentioning Fox News.
Goodbye to pretending the black community is entirely male and all women are white . . .
Surprise! Women exist in all opinions, pigmentations, ethnicities, abilities, sexual preferences, and ages--not only African American and European American but Latina and Native American, Asian American and Pacific Islanders, Arab American and<hey, every group, because a group wouldn't be alive if we hadn't given birth to it. A few non-racist countries may exist--but sexism is everywhere. No matter how many ways a woman breaks free from other oppressions, she remains a female human being in a world still so patriarchal that it's the "norm."
So why should all women not be as justly proud of our womanhood and the centuries, even millennia, of struggle that got us this far, as black Americans, women and men, are justly proud of their struggles?
Goodbye to a campaign where he has to pass as white (which whites<especially wealthy ones--adore), while she has to pass as male (which both men and women demanded of her, and then found unforgivable). If she were black or he were female we wouldn't be having such problems, and I for one would be in heaven. But at present such a candidate wouldn't stand a chance, even if she shared Condi Rice's Bush-defending politics.
I was celebrating the pivotal power at last focused on African American women deciding on which of two candidates to bestow their vote--until a number of Hillary-supporting black feminists told me they're being called "race traitors."

So goodbye to conversations about this nation's deepest scar<slavery<which fail to acknowledge that labor- and sexual-slavery exist today in the US and elsewhere on this planet, and the majority of those enslaved are women.
Women have endured sex/race/ethnic/religious hatred, rape and battery, invasion of spirit and flesh, forced pregnancy; being the majority of the poor, the illiterate, the disabled, of refugees, caregivers, the HIV/AIDS afflicted, the powerless. We have survived invisibility, ridicule, religious fundamentalisms, polygamy, teargas, forced feedings, jails, asylums, sati, purdah, female genital mutilation, witch burnings, stonings, and attempted gynocides. We have tried reason, persuasion, reassurances, and being extra-qualified, only to learn it never was about qualifications after all.
We know that at this historical moment women experience the world differently from men--though not all the same as one another--and can govern differently, from Elizabeth Tudor to Michele Bachelet and Ellen Johnson Sirleaf.
We remember when Shirley Chisholm and Patricia Schroeder ran for this high office and barely got past the gate<they showed too much passion, raised too little cash, were joke fodder. Goodbye to all that. (And goodbye to some feminists so famished for a female president they were even willing to abandon women's rights in backing Elizabeth Dole.) Goodbye, goodbye to . . .

--blaming anything Bill Clinton does on Hillary (even including his womanizing like the Kennedy guys--though unlike them, he got reported on). Let's get real. If he hadn't campaigned strongly for her everyone would cluck over what that meant. Enough of Bill and Teddy Kennedy locking their alpha male horns while Hillary pays for it.
--an era when parts of the populace feel so disaffected by politics that a comparative lack of knowledge, experience, and skill is actually seen as attractive, when celebrity-culture mania now infects our elections so that it's "cooler" to glow with marquee charisma than to understand the vast global complexities of power on a nuclear, wounded planet.
--the notion that it's fun to elect a handsome, cocky president who feels he can learn on the job, goodbye to George W. Bush and the destruction brought by his inexperience, ignorance, and arrogance.
Goodbye to the accusation that HRC acts "entitled" when she's worked intensely at everything she's done,including being a nose-to-the-grindstone, first-rate senator from my state.
Goodbye to her being exploited as a Rorschach test by women who reduce her to a blank screen on which they project their own fears, failures, fantasies.
Goodbye to the phrase "polarizing figure" to describe someone who embodies the transitions women have made in the last century and are poised to make in this one. It was the women's movement that quipped, "We are becoming the men we wanted to marry." She heard us, and she has.
Goodbye to some women letting history pass by while wringing their hands, because Hillary isn't as "likeable" as they've been warned they must be, or because she didn't leave him, couldn't "control" him, kept her family together and raised a smart, sane daughter. (Think of the blame if Chelsea had ever acted in the alcoholic, neurotic manner of the Bush twins!) Goodbye to some women pouting because she didn't bake cookies or she did, sniping because she learned the rules and then bent or broke them. Grow the hell up. She is not running for Ms.-perfect-pure-queen-icon of the feminist movement. She is running to be President of the United States.
Goodbye to the shocking American ignorance of our own and other countries' history. Margaret Thatcher and Golda Meir rose through party ranks and war, positioning themselves as proto-male leaders. Almost all other female heads of government so far have been related to men of power<granddaughters, daughters, sisters, wives, widows: Gandhi, Bandaranike, Bhutto, Aquino, Chamorro, Wazed, Macapagal-Arroyo, Johnson Sirleaf, Bachelet, Kirchner, and more. Even in our "land of opportunity,' it's mostly the first pathway "in" permitted to women: Reps. Doris Matsui and Mary Bono and Sala Burton; Sen. Jean Carnahan . . . far too many to list here.
Goodbye to a misrepresented generational divide . . .
Goodbye to the so-called spontaneous "Obama Girl" flaunting her bikini-clad ass online<then confessing Oh yeah it wasn't her idea after all, some guys got her to do it and dictated the clothes, which she said "made me feel like a dork."

Goodbye to some young women eager to win male approval by showing they're not feminists (at least not the kind who actually threaten the status quo), who can't identify with a woman candidate because she is unafraid of eeueweeeu yucky power, who fear their boyfriends might look at them funny if they say something good about her. Goodbye to women of any age again feeling unworthy, sulking "what if she's not electable?" or maybe it's post-feminism and whoooosh we're already free. Let a statement by the magnificent Harriet Tubman stand as reply. When asked how she managed to save hundreds of enslaved African Americans via the Underground Railroad during the Civil War, she replied bitterly, "I could have saved thousands<if only I'd been able to convince them they were slaves."
I'd rather say a joyful Hello to all the glorious young women who do identify with Hillary, and all the brave, smart men<of all ethnicities and any age--who get that it's in their self-interest, too. She's better qualified. (D'uh.) She's a high-profile candidate with an enormous grasp of foreign- and domestic-policy nuance, dedication to detail, ability to absorb staggering insult and personal pain while retaining dignity, resolve, even humor, and keep on keeping on. (Also, yes, dammit, let's hear it for her connections and funding and party-building background, too. Obama was awfully glad about those when she raised dough and campaigned for him to get to the Senate in the first place.)
I'd rather look forward to what a good president he might make in eight years, when his vision and spirit are seasoned by practical know-how--and he'll be all of 54. Meanwhile, goodbye to turning him into a shining knight when actually he's an astute, smooth pol with speechwriters who've worked with the Kennedys' own speechwriter-courtier Ted Sorenson. If it's only about ringing rhetoric, let speechwriters run. But isn't it about getting the policies we want enacted?
And goodbye to the ageism . . .
How dare anyone unilaterally decide when to turn the page on history, papering over real inequities and suffering constituencies in the promise of a feel-good campaign? How dare anyone claim to unify while dividing, or think that to rouse US youth from torpor it's useful to triage the single largest demographic in this country's history: the boomer generation--the majority of which is female?
Older woman are the one group that doesn't grow more conservative with age<and we are the generation of radicals who said "Well-behaved women seldom make history." Goodbye to going gently into any goodnight any man prescribes for us. We are the women who changed the reality of the United States. And though we never went away, brace yourselves: we're back!
We are the women who brought this country equal credit, better pay, affirmative action, the concept of a family-focused workplace; the women who established rape-crisis centers and battery shelters, marital-rape and date-rape laws; the women who defended lesbian custody rights, who fought for prison reform, founded the peace and environmental movements; who insisted that medical research include female anatomy, who inspired men to become more nurturing parents, who created women's studies and Title IX so we all could cheer the WNBA stars and Mia Hamm. We are the women who reclaimed sexuality from violent pornography, who put child care on the national agenda, who transformed demographics, artistic expression, language itself. We are the women who forged a worldwide movement. We are the proud successors of women who, though it took more than 50 years, won us the vote. We are the women who now comprise the majority of US voters.

Hillary said she found her own voice in New Hampshire. There's not a woman alive who, if she's honest, doesn't recognize what she means. Then HRC got drowned out by campaign experts, Bill, and media's obsession with All Things Bill.
So listen to her voice:
"For too long, the history of women has been a history of silence. Even today, there are those who are trying to silence our words. It is a violation of human rights when babies are denied food, or drowned, or suffocated, or their spines broken, simply because they are born girls. It is a violation of human rights when woman and girls are sold into the slavery of prostitution. It is a violation of human rights when women are doused with gasoline, set on fire and burned to death because their marriage dowries are deemed too small. It is a violation of human rights when individual women are raped in their own communities and when thousands of women are subjected to rape as a tactic or prize of war. It is a violation of human rights when a leading cause of death worldwide along women ages 14 to 44 is the violence they are subjected to in their own homes. It is a violation of human rights when women are denied the right to plan their own families, and that includes being forced to have abortions or being sterilized against their will. Women's rights are human rights. Among those rights are the right to speak freely--and the right to be heard."
That was Hillary Rodham Clinton defying the US State Department and the Chinese Government at the 1995 UN World Conference on Women in Beijing (the full, stunning speech: http://www.americanrhetoric.com/speeches/hillaryclintonbeijingspeech.htm).
And this voice, age 22, in Commencement Remarks of Hillary D. Rodham, President of Wellesley College Government Association, Class of 1969 (full speech:
http://www.wellesley.edu/PublicAffairs/Commencement/1969/053169hillary.html
)
"We are, all of us, exploring a world none of us understands. . . . searching for a more immediate, ecstatic, and penetrating mode of living. . . . [for the] integrity, the courage to be whole, living in relation to one another in the full poetry of existence. The struggle for an integrated life existing in an atmosphere of communal trust and respect is one with desperately important political and social consequences. . . . Fear is always with us, but we just don't have time for it."
She ended with the commitment "to practice, with all the skill of our being: the art of making possible."
And for decades, she's been learning how.
So goodbye to Hillary's second-guessing herself. The real question is deeper than her re-finding her voice. Can we women find ours? Can we do this for ourselves? "Our President, Ourselves!"
Time is short and the contest tightening. We need to rise in furious energy--as we did when courageous Anita Hill was so vilely treated in the US Senate, as we did when desperate Rosie Jiminez was butchered by an illegal abortion, as we did and do for women globally who are condemned for trying to break through. We need to win, this time. Goodbye to supporting HRC tepidly, with ambivalent caveats and apologetic smiles. Time to volunteer, make phone calls, send emails, donate money, argue, rally, march, shout, vote.

Me? I support Hillary Rodham because she's the best qualified of all candidates running in both parties. I support her because her progressive politics are as strong as her proven ability to withstand what will be a massive right-wing assault in the general election. I support her because she's refreshingly thoughtful, and I'm bloodied from eight years of a jolly "uniter" with ejaculatory politics. I needn't agree with her on every point. I agree with the 97 percent of her positions that are identical with Obama's and the few where hers are both more practical and to the left of his (like health care). I support her because she's already smashed the first-lady stereotype and made history as a fine senator, and because I believe she will continue to make history not only as the first US woman president, but as a great US president.

As for the "woman thing?"

Me, Im voting for Hillary not because she's a woman--but because I am.

Since only our Advanced/Extra written tests were/are comparable to the tests used in the CEPT countries, it's not surprising that this change was made.
Look at the HAREC syllabus and you will see that the General and Technician fall far short of that.

A Somalian arrives in Minneapolis as a new immigrant to the United States. He stops the first person he sees walking down the street and says,
'Thank you Mr. American for letting me in this country, giving me housing, food stamps, free medical care, and free education!' The passerby says, 'You are mistaken, I am Mexican.'

The man goes on and encounters another passerby. ?Thank you for having such a beautiful country here in America!' The person says, 'I not American, I Vietnamese.'

The new arrival walks further, and the next person he sees he stops, shakes his hand and says, 'Thank you for the wonderful America!' That person puts up his hand and says, 'I am from Middle East, I am not American!'

He finally sees a nice lady and asks, 'Are you an American?' She says, 'No, I am from Africa!' Puzzled, he asks her, 'Where are all the Americans?'

The African lady checks her watch and says...'Probably at work!!!!!!!

I concur. Why is this a problem in the first place? G and T class licenses don't have "full privileges" here in the U.S. so why do those holders think KB9RQZ dances to a far different tune than you and I. He feels that his no-code license should entitle him to any and all preveledges held by those of us who (gasp!), worked for our licenses.

He, like typical welfare recipients nationwide, feels that he is "entitled" to the Advanced and Extra class bandwidths merely by his presence.

The web site shows another as club president. Either the mis-wired Mr.
Morgan is the brand new president or, as in the past, he is simply making it up as he goes along.

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

New Era Canning Company Announces New Nationwide Recall of Vegetable Products in #10 cans (6 to 7 pound cans)
Contact:
Linda Miller
1-800-282-9007 Ext 111

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- New Era, MI - February 7, 2008 --- New Era Canning Company of New Era, Michigan is recalling all cans of vegetable products in #10 cans (large cans containing between 6 and 7 pounds) on the list below because they may have been processed under conditions which could have led to contamination by Clostridium botulinum bacterium spores, which can cause life-threatening illness or death.

While the UPC on the can label may be helpful in determining whether the product might be under recall, customers will need to also examine the lot code information on the can end to determine whether the can is subject to recall, as some distributors may purchase these products from more than one supplier. The UPC and lot code information has been included on the product list for each product under recall to make the identification of any recalled products easier.

Clostridium botulinum bacterium spores have the potential for growth that produces a toxin that causes a potentially fatal form of food poisoning - botulism. Symptoms of botulism poisoning in humans can begin from 6 hours to 2 weeks after eating food that contains the toxin. Symptoms may include double vision, blurred vision, drooping eyelids, slurred speech, difficulty swallowing, and muscle weakness that moves progressively down the body, affecting the shoulders first, then descending to the upper arms, lower arms, thighs, and calves. Botulism poisoning also can cause paralysis of the breathing muscles, which can result in death unless assistance with breathing (mechanical ventilation) is provided. Individuals who have these symptoms and who may have recently eaten the any of the recalled vegetable products currently under recall or other food products made with these items should seek immediate medical attention.

The issues were uncovered in a FDA inspection of products that were in the company's possession. NO product has tested positive for the toxin and there have been NO cases of botulism reported from these products.

This recall only affects the products in the large #10 cans, the majority of which were potentially sold nationwide to various food service customers.

However these products may also have been purchased by consumers at retail stores. The code on the cans may be embossed (stamped into the metal of the can) or printed in ink on one of the metal can ends and the first set of numbers or letters in the code may be used to identify whether the product was canned by New Era Canning. We have been alerted that some of our cans may be missing the can codes. Any cans of these products without a code should not be opened or used and assumed to be under the recall.

Examples of how a lot code may appear on a can of Green Beans, Italian Cut are: "00249 2BH7FL", "00249 1515 2BH7FL", "ITAL 2BH7FL" or "ITAL 1515 2BH7FL". (These are not necessarily actual can codes). In these examples, the "00249" and the "ITAL", being the first set of numbers or letters in the lot code, would be used to identify that the product was canned by New Era Canning.

Examples of how a lot code may appear on a can of Great Northern beans are: "00249 34F7LG", "00249 1515 34F7LG", "NORTH 34F7LG" or "NORTH 1515 34F7LG". (These are not necessarily actual can codes). In these examples, the "00249" and the "NORTH", being the first set of numbers or letters in the lot code, would be used to identify that the product was canned by New Era Canning.

New Era Canning, in conjunction with the US Food and Drug Administration and the Michigan Department of Agriculture, is thoroughly evaluating all processes and procedures to determine the cause of the problem.

Any food that may be contaminated should be disposed of carefully. Even tiny amounts of toxins ingested, inhaled, or absorbed through the eye or a break in the skin can cause serious illness. Skin contact should be avoided as much as possible, and the hands should be washed immediately after handling the food. Customers who have these products or any foods made with these products should throw them away immediately. Double bag the cans in plastic bags that are tightly closed, then place in a trash receptacle for non-recyclable trash outside of the home. Restaurants and institutions are encouraged to assure that such products are only placed in locked receptacles which are not accessible to the public. Additional instructions for safe disposal can be found at www.cdc.gov/botulism/botulism_faq.htm.
Anyone with questions can call FDA at 1-888-SAFEFOOD.
Customers with questions may contact New Era Canning at 1-800-282-9007 Ext. 111.

The General License (conveyed after passing the general exam) used to convey all amateur privileges in America.

That was quite some time ago. Not too many of the Generals of that era are left. They have either moved up to the Advanced or Extra or passed on to that great radio shack in the sky.

Because the General Exam hasn't been changed and prior to this new ruling, was just fine. That's why.

Based on the standards for the CEPT, they made a mistake in allowing Generals to qualify. They've corrected that.

Besides, it's there continent and countries and organizations. They get to make the rules there.

More like a farce, Mark, pretending that you have a brain is Silly.

Beware users of Usenet, in my opinion Mark KB9RQZ will laud false charges at You.....
According to Mark Morgan KB9RQZ, he has already reported K3VR and now W4NTI, for what I believe are false manufactured allegations. In my opinion, Mark reported a crime that I believe he may have actually commited himself, by first manufacturing a message through his own blog which would suggest a sex crime involving a child, and then second, by sending it to himself. Why would I believe such a thing about Mr. Morgan? Simple, Mark has admited that he will lie when he feels it is necessary, he has shown that he will persue other hams
off
of the net in an attempt to affect their off-line lives and livelyhood. Further, based on Mr. Morgan's posts, I believe that after years of reporting of what he perceives are crimes against him to Law Enforcement, which apparently have been ignored, Mark is frustrated
with being ignored, and demands that law enforcement take him
seriously. What better way for Mark to accomplish this task by inventing crimes involving children. Everyone knows that LE takes crimes involving children seriously. So far it appears that law enforcement is once again taking little interest in persuing another one of Mark's claims. However, time will tell. Certainly, if someone from law enforcement contacts me, of course I will cooperate with any
a notice of caution to anyone who uses their true amateur radio calls
or identities ANYWHERE on the amateur groups or even the internet. Mr.
Mark C. Morgan KB9RQZ has implied that if he sees a post from anyone whom he believes even remotely could be "dloyd", he will report that person as being responsible for what I believe are falsified trumped up charges invented by Mr. Morgan. IMO there is an unstable ham radio
take revenge for the crimes that he perceives have been commited against him. He has implied that he does not care who he reports and
happened to him in connection with usenet. Why? because we did not come to Mark's aide and defense during "his time in need." Mark cannot accept the fact that there is no widespread fraternity within the ARS, and it is not anyone's responsibility to render him aide on the internet.

Once again I will add this statement of fact...

I am not the following persons that Mark keeps insisting that at least one is "dloyd"...

I am not Steve K4YZ.

I am not Brian K3VR

I am not Dan W4NTI

Mark should leave these good folks alone and as he always says..."you should mind your own affairs." But since I believe that Mark manufactured the evidence..and he is such a good citizen, I believe that he should turn himself in for his own crime.

2161. Mark deals low blow to Dee Flint....Mark KB9RQZ, why attack someone for just offering their opinion, which was not even directed at you.

really HMM it seems you likely put the item fully in here view if that was my gaol you also allowed me to highlight once again why I say you are such a bad ham

gee looks like my gaols were acheived with 100% effectiveness

of course since you don'tr underfstand my gaols (sadly i doubt you could if you tried) you are in no postion to judge effectiveness

If I wanted to tlak to DEE and just I would have emailed her tlaked to her on air, sent a letter etc

I never did care if Dee even saw my note she like you and the rest are merely springbaords for the medium to reach my real audence the lurkers in the RRAP

Such classy language from the President Elect of the CCRAA. What happened to your manners?

At least you were respectful enough to capitalize b*tch, Mr Prez, but you still don't have any manners. Europeans get to decide what it takes to operate in their countries, and we get to do the same in the U.S.

Unfortunately, the U.S. decided to give you a license and Hughes decided to give you an account. Go figure.

Why did Mark attack MS Flint? Because he's a low life coward,thats why. He knows in his heart he's nothing more than sick fruit. A second

Mark, Dee blocked your sorry ass a long time ago, she doesn't see anything you post. You might as well have screamed out a window, as it would have been just as effective....LOL

Poor Mark has had it in for Dee ever since she shunned his attempts to befriend her. She killfiled him and made a comment that he was unworthy of her attentions.
Mark took offense that someone would have the unmitigated audacity to brush him aside as though he were just one more piece of scrap paper blowing in the wind.
Mark was, GASP!, CHOKE!, summarily shunted into Dee's waste bin forevermore and Mark simply cannot stand it. What a blow to his ego that was.

Mark has now lowered himself to calling her nasty names. How childish.

so? I was typing more about deed than to her

>You might as well have screamed out a window, as > it would have been just as effective....

really HMM it seems you likely put the item fully in here view if that
are such a bad ham

gee looks like my gaols were acheived with 100% effectiveness

of course since you don'tr underfstand my gaols (sadly i doubt you could if you tried) you are in no postion to judge effectiveness

If I wanted to tlak to DEE and just I would have emailed her tlaked to
her on air, sent a letter etc

merely springbaords for the medium to reach my real audence the
......

As I have with other such comments, I saved them to my Mark Morgan archive for possible future use.

I did nothing but point out her bad behavoir

Her behavior was quite ladylike. She was to the point and quite succinct.
The only exhibition of bad behavior was yours....when you called her an "eletist bitch".
By the way, Mark. You misspelled Elitist, but what else is new?

What is your problem, Mark? Do you dislike intelligent women? Does Dee bring out your inferiority complex?
Or is she simply too "sassy" for your liking?

You have no "audence", Mark. There are no lurkers who await your every word.
The fact of the matter is that you are rather reviled and looked upon as yet another, simple Usenet kook.

Dee is not "arogant". She merely stated her opinion as you do but sans the profanity, and you cannot handle being rebuffed...especially by a woman who is quite obviously your intellectual superior.

Dee has always been pleasant and quite ladylike to other Hams. It is only YOU that she had a well-deserved issue with and that was YOUR fault, not hers. Perhaps it was your hundreds of floods that caused Dee to look at you as a Usenet Pariah. Ever consider that?
It was not Dee who resorted to cheap profanity. Unlike you, she is clearly above that sort of tawdriness.

Just as you have for years flooded Usenet with your insanity.

An argument? A verbal exchange that you cannot spell?

You are again restorting to your third grade mentality when you proclaim, "I

And do not for a minute flatter yourself. I couldn't care less about your

I don't need the crutch of joining a group.

Obviously you seek and need the acceptance of a group to make you feel

Something in the Amateur Radio rules that I think I understand, but someone else is interpreting them very differently.

My question centers on the Amateur Radio station KJ4BSL, which is issued to 278 ACR RTS HHT, to the attention of Dooley H Buckner SFC. This license includes no operator privileges and the station privileges of MILITARY REC.

Mr. Buckner believes that the FCC rules §97.5 b 3 and §97.5 c allow him to transmit on Amateur Radio frequencies. I'll include the relevant part 97 text.
§97.5 Station license grant required.
(a) The station apparatus must be under the physical control of a person named in an amateur station license grant on the ULS consolidated license database or a person authorized for alien reciprocal operation by §97.107 of this part, before the station may transmit on any amateur service frequency from any place that is:
(1)Within 50 km of the Earth's surface and at a place where the amateur service is regulated by the FCC;

(b) The types of station license grants are:
(3) A military recreation station license grant. A military recreation station license grant may be held only by the person who is the license custodian designated by the official in charge of the United States military recreational premises where the station is situated.
The person must not be a representative of a foreign government. The person need not hold an amateur operator license grant.

(c) The person named in the station license grant or who is authorized for alien reciprocal operation by §97.107 of this Part may use, in accordance with the applicable rules of this Part, the transmitting apparatus under the physical control of the person at places where the amateur service is regulated by the FCC.

When we first read §97.5 c above I thought that he was correct, but after thinking about it some more my thoughts went to the phrase "in accordance with the applicable rules of this Part" assuming that Part refers to the FCC rules related to Amateur Radio, Part 97.

The very next section is §97.7, which states that each amateur station must have a control operator.

§97.7 Control operator required
When transmitting, each amateur station must have a control operator. The control operator must be a person:

(a) For whom an amateur operator/primary station license grant appears on the ULS consolidated licensee database

So to operate the Amateur Radio station KJ4BSL in accordance with the applicable rules of Part 97, it must have a control operator with an operator/primary station license grant, which is basically a typical amateur radio license that would be issued to an individual. Since Mr. Buckner does not have an Amateur Radio license of his own, I suspect that he is operating the Amateur Radio station KJ4BSL illegally.

I could be completely wrong with my interpretation of the rules, but I think I'm right on this one. I am looking at it a couple of ways, and I can see where I think he has misinterpreted the rules. I think the easiest way to figure this out would be to ask, what are the operator privileges granted to the Amateur Radio station KJ4BSL. The answer is that operator privileges are not granted to stations, they are granted to operators, and no such privileges have been granted to Mr. Buckner yet.

Since it is against the rules to contact stations operating illegally, I think I'll avoid KJ4BSL until I find that Mr. Buckner gets an Amateur Radio license or someone explains that my interpretation of the rules are incorrect.

CERTIFIED MAIL - RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

January 29, 2008

Todd E. Daugherty

800 W Main Cross

Taylorville, IL 62568

SUBJECT: Amateur Radio license N9OGL; WARNING NOTICE; Case #EB-07-SE-371

Dear Mr. Daugherty:

Information before the Commission indicates that you have been operating an unlicensed radio station on, among other frequencies, 6.950 and 13.556 MHz. The information indicates that the signal strengths of these transmissions exceed the power limit of Part 15 of the Commission's rules for unlicensed transmitters. Your response to the Enforcement Bureau received on November 6, 2007 was insufficient and contradictory, and indicates a misunderstanding of the Part 15 power limits for unlicensed stations. For example, you stated that your power levels were in compliance with Part 15 of the Commission's rules, yet in statements made in 2006 and 2007 describing your shortwave station "Omega One" you stated that you were operating at 5 watts, then 10 watts and later 50 and 100 watts.

Such unlicensed operation would be a violation of Section 301 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 18 U.S.C. S: 301, and would subject you to a monetary forfeiture (fine) or imprisonment, or both. Forfeitures normally range from $7,500 to $10,000. Furthermore, such operation would reflect adversely on your qualifications to retain an Amateur license.

Sincerely,

W. Riley Hollingsworth

Special Counsel

Actually, Mark misspelled "get help" as a topic line and, after being made fun of for yet another spelling gaffe, he decided to keep the "get kelp" topic line and make it appear as if he had meant to do this all along.
Any variation Mark may have of this story will be yet another lie.

But when you obtain an amateur radio license you are SUPPOSED to know the rules and regulations. If a person actually studied the information required to pass an amateur examination, when instead, as many are openily saying, they just studied the Q and A of the answer pool, there would not be so many misunderstandings of Part 97.

>merely misunderstanding the rules is not always a crime however

Agreed, however, violating the rules and regs and then claiming that you misunderstood or did not know the rules and regs, may not be sufficient argument to keep you from receiving an NAL.

In this case, IMO I believe that KJ4BSL is misinterpeting the rules and regulation and he is confusing the difference between a license grant and an amateur radio operator's license. I'm sure the license for KJ4BSL does not convey a class of license and only authorizes the holder to establish a station on base, much like a club call. If you look on the back of your license you will see that it says "This license shall not vest in the licensee any right to operate the station nor any right in the use of authorized frequencies beyond the term herein, nor in any other manner than authorized herein. Since the license did not articulate a license class which would determine the privileges, no privileges are authorized with the grant.

I would not QSO with the guy becuase he is not authorized to do so.

does not afford any operating privledges. As we all know when you obtain an amateur radio license you are issued two documents, the Mark, as you recognized, it was a request for an answer, and you did not provide one, just another one of your non informational rants. As you have proved so many times before, you know very little about the ARS and are nothing more than an appliance operator, much like a child with a walkie talkie. Since I am a qualified ARRL and W5YI VE and an Extra class licensee, I believe that I am more qualified than you to answer the question.

Fortunately, you don't get to determine who gets to post what...now go crawl back under your slimey rock from which you came, study more about the ARS, and maybe one day you may have a legitimate answer or will be able to add something worth reading to the thread.

The General exam hasn't changed.

It is just as meaningful as when the General license conveyed all privs.

It is just as meaningful when it was accepted under CEPT.

The General exam hasn't changed; the Europeans sure have, though.

So what is the ARRL doing about it? What is the FCC going to do about it?

The General exam hasn't changed.

It is just as meaningful as when the General license conveyed all privs.

It is just as meaningful when it was accepted under CEPT.

The General exam hasn't changed; the Europeans sure have, though.

So what is the ARRL doing about it? What is the FCC going to do about it?

Neither the FCC or the ARRL has any power to do a thing about it. It is not within the jurisdiction of the FCC or the ARRL. Anyone wanting to operate in Europe under CEPT is going to have to upgrade to Extra.

Sure.

Read the HAREC syllabus. The General & Tech don't meet it. That they previously granted Generals and Techs operating privileges under CEPT does not change the fact that those license classes did not and do not meet that syllabus.

In addition, the US has no authority to change the CEPT rules.

Did you actually have a QSO with this person and know for a fact that he is operating the station, and that indeed NO person was otherwise present during the alleged operation?

If not, there's no problem. ANY person may be the custodian of a Military Recreational Station as long as they are designated in writing as such by an authorized officer of the applying unit or organization.

The custodian is only responsible for making sure that the facilities are secure and that only authorized users (ie: legitimately licensed operators) have access to the station. S/he may operate the station when a duly licensed control operator is present.

Nope. It clearly states that Toiddie ran his mouth off one time too many and the FCC was paying attention! Did Toiddie REALLY think he was impervious to legal action for his acts?

> > He GOT CAUGHT because, like you,

Uhhh...Hey DooDoo-For-Brains....He got a letter addressed TO HIM by the FCC correctly linking him to that "Smegma One" silliness of his, frequencies, and mailing address, along with his Amateur call.

THAT is busted!

> it looks like RH is trying to use disinfo staments by Todd as evidence

Sure it will "fly". Toiddie himself bragged about his illegal activites on-the-air, in print and in this forum. I dare say the FCC has documentation from more than ONE source! I know of at least three that have submitted complaints!

No problem...Europeans dislike people like you (dubiously responsible around children and the infirmed) even more than they do in the States...I doubt you'd make it home.

Steve, K4YZ
Mark is having an extremely difficult time flooding Usenet of late. As you can see, he is relegated to posting through Google over various Google accounts.
Mark lost his Teranews account (and ability to flood) due mainly to the endeavors of DeLorean who was the instrumental party in having Mark's account stifled.
Google has daily posting limits that are imposed on each account holder, and Mark is having to deal with that. You will note that Mark has several Google accounts that he uses to post to RRAP and other Usenet groups in an attempt to skirt the posting limits.
I am betting that with your reappearance on Usenet that Mark is already beside himself (you seem to anger him more than others) in that he cannot flood as in days past. I've no doubt that Mark will soon, if not already, be on the prowl for another News provider that will allow him to flood and abuse RRAP in an attempt to "defend" his good(?) name.
Fortunately for us and RRAP. Mark has been unsuccessful and gone are the days of 1,000 plus posts in 48 hours.
We are all better off and RRAP is much the better for DeLorean's efforts.

Name and call withheld. (tho you know who I am...)

No need to worry about that...Morkie will no doubt be stewing in his own juices that I was indeed proven right AGAIN about him and the Feeble Five circle...

That he feels the need to flood this newsgroup in order to mask demonstrate what a coward he really is.

Uhhhhh....You mean the parts about potential fines and his worthiness to keep his Amateur license weren't enough, Fatboy?

It was a WARNING LETTER, reminding the jerk that he is OBLIGATED to FOLLOW THE RULES or he would suffer consequences!

I ought to re-file the complaint against him to the FAA over his illegally modified ultralight while the Feds are on a roll! The same "character" issues that the FCC applies to their licensees applies to the FAA...And even if Toiddie hasn't completed his "Sport Pilot" certificate yet, the FAA can ground him anyway.

There's not one word of that that even REMOTELY makes sense, Fatboy...Not that anything you ever utter does...

However the FCC's not going to buy any "tweaking" crap. Just like you, Toiddie get's in trouble opening his big mouth to the wrong people in the wrong forums...His bragging brought official ears on to his little operation, and it didn't take long to figure out that his "Part 15 broadcast station" was in violation of Part 15 in spades...

Toiddie's best bet here is to admit to some drunken stupidity, promise to never do it again, and invite an FCC representitive (or other impartial 3rd party) over to his parent's house to watch him destroy the "Part 15 broadcast station" and then attest to it under a Pubic Notary's signature.

Mark takes particular umbrage and exhibits anger when told that he cannot make the "rules" when posting to RRAP. Somewhere along the line, this psychological misfit has gotten the idea that RRAP is his exclusive group to do with that which he pleases.

> Mark lost his Teranews account (and ability to flood) due mainly to the Three cheers for "DeLorean", whoever s/he may be...

DeLorean, and please use the capitol "L", (as I was chastised), was the only actor who took it upon himself to contact Teranews several times regarding Mark's poor behaviour. Mark thought for the longest time that he was invinceable where Teranews was concerned but he soon learned differently.
In fact, after Teranews blocked Mark's floods, the ever paranoid Mark accused DeLorean of somehow hacking the Teranews site. Mark claimed that DeLorean had broken all sorts of laws and was a criminal.
Typical Mark. He simply refused to believe that he had been blocked because of his floods.

I used to run hios game just to tweak his nose. He loves to taunt others with "get a life", but then figures those of us WITH a life can't do the math and figure out just how much of HIS life is dedicated to being a twit.

We are already aware of that. Unfortunately, Mark is not. Mark views himself as an eternal victim and feels compelled to respond to each and evey post on RRAP, whether the post has anything to do with him or not.
Couple that with his habit of hijacking the topic threads and one can easily understand why Mark is so disliked.

> I am betting that with your reappearance on Usenet that Mark is already > beside himself (you seem to anger him more than others) in that he cannot

No need to worry about that...Morkie will no doubt be stewing in
Feeble Five circle...

That he feels the need to flood this newsgroup in order to mask anyone else's thoughts, opinions, ideas, etc, only serves to demonstrate what a coward he really is.

But wait! Mark actually feels that he is "defending" his honor, if there is indeed such a thing.
It has never once occurred to Mark that his floods, his insults, and his unwanted intrusions had anything to do with his obvious lack of popularity.
Mark sees himself as the perennial "victum", as he spells it.

> Fortunately for us and RRAP. Mark has been unsuccessful and gone are the > days of 1,000 plus posts in 48 hours.
> We are all better off and RRAP is much the better for DeLorean's efforts.

Morkie can flood RRAP all he cares to. The time and place of real-life "getting things done" isn't THIS forum...Never was, never will be.

Mark has no idea of what "getting things done" means. He is unemployed.
I have saved posts in which Mark claims that he is a "consultant" and because of his poor spelling, he dictates to some non-existent secretary. I have another post whereby Mark claims that he is garnering some sort of disability income from the Army. Hard to do from one who claims that the National Guard released him from duty because he was overweight. Yes, I have that post, too.
Then, as an aside, Mark once explained that he cannot chop firewood for his father's house with much vigor. He said that he has to, because of his physical disability, chop the wood in small increments.

So you see, Mark has spun many tales, all of which are patently false. From claiming that he was a Lt. Colonel, then a Lt., to being "drafted" into the National Guard, which, by the way, the Guard does NOT do, to allegedly being "raped" on the 4th floor of a barracks at Ft. Sill are all tall tales.

It might interest Mark to know that I was stationed at Ft. Sill and there were no barracks with four floors. I was in a barracks that was a converted hospital and that had only three floors. It was the tallest building on the entire base. Unless Mark was on the roof with the alleged rapists, his tall tale is just that...a fantasy. He certainly threw nobody out a "window" from the fourth floor from any building at Fort Sill. None exist.

Yes, you know me.

We exchanged emails two years ago.

I'll say no more since Mark would love to know who I am.

He sometimes thinks I am DeLorean, sometimes accuses me of being Roger, and at other times accuses me of being his next, best arch-enemy, Dloyd Lavies.

You should get to know Dloyd. He has a unique talent for bringing out Mark's good nature.

And of course there is always Dee Flint, a very nice and well-spoken female Extra who has caused Mark no small amount of angst. Seems Mark dislikes her because she is well educated, writes well, and who, GASP!, ignores Mark.
Mark has resorted to calling Dee names, such as "eletist bitch", his spelling, not mine.
Mark has several times tried to reach out and converse with Dee but she has rebuffed or ignored his every attempt. Her lack of interest in what Mark has to say has apparently angered Mark, who wants, no, DEMANDS, that he be paid attention to.
So what does Mark do? He acted like a spurned child and restorted to calling Dee names in an effort to assuage his injured ego.
I now wonder if Mark feels threatened by well-educated women? God forbid that a "mere woman" would have the audacity to not only gently put Mark in his place, but <gasp> have the unmitigated gall to not even acknowledge his presence.

Good for Dee. I applaud her. <hands clapping>

Morkie sees Black Helicopters behind ever oak...And considering where he lives, that's a lot of uncontrolled air traffic in such a little area!

Doesn't ANYone who can communicate effectively in ENGLISH...?!?!

I've still not figured out what that is he tries to extrapolate INTO English, however he's obviously got problems a lot bigger than his alleged "dyslexia".

I am sure that's why Morkie had to import a "wife". Had to find someone who he could isolate and keep under control.

Her too...?!?! He's called me that on occassion! Just like him to re-tread an insult. How unoriginal!

I know...The ironic thing is that lot's of people, myself included, have tried to "converse" with Morkie in the past...Of course his usual first responses to statements he doesn't like or agree with is "lier" or some other irrational response.

> So what does Mark do? He acted like a spurned child and restorted to calling

And that's a BIG ego to assuage!

Morkie feels threatened by ANYone with ANY education, regardless of the source, hence his frequent alludings to being a MENSA member, having an IQ of 248, several college degrees, and allegedly works as some sort of "professional consultant" (my working, not his...I can't force myself to spell that poorly inpublic!) in geophysics.

In any case..I agree...Dee seems to be a very level-headed, fair person. Rare considering this forum.

That's part of the reason he moved to the Upper Penninsula of Michigan. Morkie was a "psychological misfit" down in more populated environs. It's easier to hide your problems when there's that much real estate between neighbors.

Just as Toiddie complained after he got booted from his highspeed service after his profane rants. Couldn't believe that such behaviour was't OK...Probably still think's it's OK...But then he's the one with

I use to "dislike" Morkie...Then I realized that if it weren't people by...He serves a purpose in his insanity.

I know..I know...And believe it or not...In the last several weeks I've had a fellow with the nearly the same name, who LOOKS like Morkie and acts like him become a regular in my ER...Everyone is at fault...His boss is after him, his wife is "demanding", he "can't get

I know that too...Morkie never can keep his stories straight.
Just like his imaginary Army career...Smoke and mirrors...And not very clean mirrors at that!

That's what you get when you invent your tales based upon a bus tour of the facility you claim to have been "stationed" at.

Morkie feels threatened by ANYone with ANY education, regardless of the source, hence his frequent alludings to being a MENSA member, having an IQ of 248, several college degrees, and allegedly works as some sort of "professional consultant" (my working, not his...I can't force myself to spell that poorly inpublic!) in geophysics.

I recall clearly not a year ago when a REAL geophysicist took Mark to task on Usenet. Mark had made a lame claim that he had "worked" with a worldwide, renowned scientist when, in fact, he had not. The real geophysicist took Mark to task for his lies. The reason? The real geophysicist had worked beside the renowned scientist that Mark had claimed to have worked beside and when called to task for his lie, Mark went mute and never broached the topic again. He was, yet again, caught in another lie.
The real geophysicist had a PhD and was, in my estimation, a real deal.
Mark, meanwhile, claimed that one of his alleged three Masters' degrees gave him title to refer to himself as a geophysicist.
As with all the rest of Mark's claims, one cannot believe a word he says.
His is truly a fantasy world.

From a "drafted" Lt. Colonel, to a second Lieutentant, to a fat enlisted man who was DEROSE'd out of the National Guard for being overweight, to....well, no more need be said.

Mark's world is truly one of more fantasy than fact.

I have a recording of Todd losing his temper while on 14.275. You should hear him! He went absolutely berserk while using the most foul language you can imagine. One of the Hams recorded it and posted it for all to hear.

There is a link to his tirade on one of the web pages, and I'll see if I can find it for you.

Todd went ballistic and sounded like a child.

He has a screw loose for sure.

And Mark once claimed that he dated one of Todd's old girlfriends. It seems that Kooks run in the same circles.

It also speaks volumes about Mark's current squeeze. Kooks attract Kooks.

Agreed Steve, however the person who holds the grant Mr. Buckner has said that he is the operator of the station and even implies he can operate on any amateur frequency because he holds a Mars license. Oh, my. You will most certainly raise the ire of Markie with your "welcome back" wishes.

Ahhhhhhhhhh...I see...I was wondering where that was coming from as I didn't see it in RRAP. Of course with Morkie constantly retasking every subject line with his idiocity, who can follow anything.

I stand corrected.

In that case, it would appear Mr Buckner is suffering from an acute cranial rectal inversion. Someone ought to drop a letter the commander of the unit that the license is issued to and bring them up-to-speed on the limitations of a "military recreation" station...And by the way...How can he hold a MARS "license" without an Amateur operator license issued to him?

From Morkie's QRZ "Bio":

QUOTE:

just an aside I do not sell on ebay nor do i expect to do so in the near future if you think you have bought something from me you have not and I can not be resposbsble if you send me money for something I did not sell you

UNQUOTE

Looks like either someone hijacked one of Morkie's multitude of nyms, or he "won" an eBay auction then refused to make good on the deal. I lean towards him welching on a promise to ship whatever it was he was supposed to ship. I am sure he uses the monies to supplement his welfare.

In either case, his comment about not being "resposbsle" for money sent to him in error sounds like him...Why let a little thing like fraud and ethics bother KB9RQZ? He's all about teaching kids to lie, I have no doubt that this is one of them.

The WRITTEN exam hasn't, but the criteria for the license has!

No it's not.

> It is just as meaningful when it was accepted under CEPT.

Why? For updating the CEPT to reflect the dumbing-down of US Amateur licenses?

Their only fault is being slow...US community colleges dropped Amateur licensure as creditable elective work years ago when the question pools went "open".

> it?-

In as much as neither organization has membership in the CEPT, I doubt they will do / can do anything except lodge a letter of protest.

CEPT membership requires the applicant to be the official "posts" or "telecommunication regulatory" agency of a member nation of the European Union. Neither the FCC or ARRL meet that criteria.

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

Choyce Products Voluntarily Recalls Yellowfin Tuna Due to Possible Health Risk
Contact:
Choyce Products
808-839-1502

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- February 9, 2008 -- Choyce Products of Honolulu, Hawaii is voluntarily recalling 5,452 pounds of frozen Yellowfin Tuna because it has the potential to be contaminated with Salmonella.

Salmonella is an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems. Healthy persons infected with Salmonella often experience fever, diarrhea (which may be bloody), nausea, vomiting and abdominal pain. In rare circumstances, infection with Salmonella can result in the organism getting into the bloodstream and producing more severe illness such as arterial infections (i.e., infected aneurysms), endocarditis and arthritis.

The frozen Yellowfin tuna was distributed on Oahu and most likely reached consumers in the form of a mixed, previously frozen, seafood product through its customers. Choyce Products received the tuna from a mainland importer who confirmed the tuna was sent from Indonesia.

Choyce Products' customers received the cubed tuna in frozen form. The frozen product is packaged in labeled white cardboard shipping boxes containing 22 pounds of product. These boxes each contain 11 2-pound packages of vacuum-packed product in unlabeled plastic bags. White stickers on the cardboard shipping boxes have the following code information:

a.. Lot Number 0727408005899 with Production Dates October 1 and 2, 2007
b.. Lot Number 0725008005899 with Production Date September 7, 2007
c.. Lot Number 0726408005899 with Production Date September 21, 2007
Choyce Products unknowingly sold the tuna to its customers before learning of the possible contamination. The FDA and the state of Hawaii are conducting a joint investigation of a variety of vendors due to the state receiving Salmonella illness reports between October 1, 2007 and December 31, 2007. The source has not yet been identified. Choyce Products will destroy all returned and inventoried recalled product.

Consumers can call 808-839-1502 if they have concerns or questions about tuna-containing products they have consumed. Those Choyce Products customer who suspect they may have this product should keep it in their possession and call 808-839-1502 with the label information. Should the tuna be from the parcel in question, it will be retrieved and destroyed by Choyce Products and a refund will be issued.

Excellent question Steve, however it is one that escapes me. His mars call is AAR4NGC, but as you noticed, it seems that he apparently got the Mars call without a ham license. Unless he piggy-backed on the recreational license, I don't know how he did it.. It will be interesting to see how all of this plays out, I am sure we have not heard the last of it.

Plenty has changed Mark, the testing went from you had to know the electrical theories, had to know how to draw a schematic of a working circuit, and had to know the rules and regulations. To lets bring in Mom and 9 year old junior and make the exam process so easy that they will be extras in a month. Although the code requirement has been lifted, the European's have not dumbed down their written examinations like the U.S.

Basically, the Europeans (except for a few countries) view the US requirements to obtain a Technician and General class license as being below the threshold standards required to obtain the lowest class of ham license in Europe, of the few countries that will accept the lower US classes, Generals and Technicians can operarte under a more limited CEPT Class 2 license known as an "Amateur Radio Novice".

The US has no authority...Period. CEPT is the European Conference of Postal and Telecommunications Administrations, which the US is not a member. The US has no authority to dictate to CEPT and can only ask for permission to allow its licensees the privilege of operation from CEPT countries. The US did just that, and CEPT responded yes, initially granting all amateurs classes permission. However, with the dumbing down of the testing in the US, CEPT recognized this trend, has revised its position, and now rightly only allows for those who have met the knowledge criteria that is equal to the requirements placed on their own amateurs, which is more equivalent to our Extra class.

CEPT did not deal a low blow to USA amateurs.

CEPT recognized that the tests for Tech and General are not up to their standards and corrected their rules accordingly.

Mark, goverments do not give an immediate response. especially something as low priority as ham radio. CEPT's response is based upon a trend that has been going on for several years. and acted accordingly.

It was required and it was on the test. You have not been licensed long enough to know how it was before incentive licensing, Hell Mark, you have yet to pass the scaled down Extra exam that is offered today.

> you merely have to suceed in passing trhe test and CEPT has recognized that passing the current grade of US technician and general examinations is insufficient to have full amateur privledges in Europe, when they require their hams to pass a much more difficult test.

Bwahahahahah!

Someone posted this link on the net where Mark got into it with another ham on another ham board...in just four pages it went from Mark looking for information about VE7 Madera to Mark accusing another ham of libel and slander....Bwahahahahah! The other ham was fast on his feet and promptly handed Mark his ass. It's quite a hoot and really is a prime example of Mark's twisted logic and how he twists things so he can play the "Victum".

The criteria for passing an Amateur exam for ALL classes of license.

No real skill OR knowledge is required any more. Just memorize and adequate number of questions and Bingo...You're "licensed"!

Sure we do.

THAT'S for sure.

No...CEPT changed the requirements for reciprocal licensing based upon the knowledge and skill levels required to obtain licensure.
Present US licenses don't stand up to what CEPT requires.

That in and of itself should be a red flag.

No...CEPT changed the requirements for reciprocal licensing based upon the knowledge and skill levels required to obtain licensure.
Present US licenses don't stand up to what CEPT requires.

That in and of itself should be a red flag.

Steve, K4YZ

If you read through the current and older HAREC syllabi, it would appear that the General and Tech haven't met those standards for a couple of decades. I'm betting that the CEPT people simply had never bothered to evaluate what it took to get the General and Tech before this. In most of the CEPT countries, the only difference between the licenses was the Morse code but they all took the same written and that was equivalent to our Extra.

Glenn P. Ekdahl, WA8QNF, is the current president of the Copper Country Radio Amateur Association -- the organization for which KB9RQZ is allegedly the president elect.

In the comments section of a spoof blog at http://ccraa.blogspot.com, Mr. Ekdahl says some glowing things about KB9RQZ down near the bottom of http://ccraa.blogspot.com/2008/02/comments.html

Concerned with an earlier comment which labeled Mark a "Cretin," WA8QNF supposedly says:

"funny thing is Mark is no cretin

"but you are disgusting attacking an entire ham club as you are

"and it's memebers

"we can only hope Mark runs the club as well as he run his life

"I am not worried and I will be glad to leave the club in the hands of someone that takes his duriyes as seriously as Mark has already PROVED he takes the one he is talking on"

Does the prose above look familiar? Does the lack of capitalization and the spelling of words like "duties" and "members" make you think of another, familiar poster? Could it be that Mark has forged a glowing comment by Glenn about himself?

I think that the answer is "yes."

Morkie, can you not add any meaningful comment to the ones made, or do you just keep "flooding" by repeating meaningless gibberish?

The "hipocracy", fatboy, is the mountain of lies, deceit and cowardice that you have let loose upon this NG since 1997.

Well, from what I read on QRZ, it appears SFC Buckner got the message and realizes that he's allowed to be a "custodian" for the station, but not a "control operator"...Let's hope that he heeds the advice and get's his own Amateur ticket.

I am shocked when they classed the tech for full previdileges myself but your assertion that CEPT was too lazy or to do their job propeply frnakluy I think the acted from polictics and did the right thing before (they made up their own mind) as their sems little reason for the change at this point indeed generaly legal proceeding would have called for the older rules to stand, a little thing called

Nope. Not at all.

But I do see you're as "stupid filled" as ever...Still jamming the NG with your own brand of idiocity and foolishness, To wit:

> you are the pone that lies inceasantly

I am a "pone"? Is that like "cornpone"?

And what is "inceasantly"...?!?! It's not in the dictionary.

You DO know what a dictionary is, don't you, college boy?

> for one thing (a minor oint I agree) I did not reach this ng til 98

A "minor oint"? Is that UP slang for a swine under the age of 18?

> the year you threatened to murder me for disagreeing with you about

I've never threatened to murder you, fatboy, although I have asked you to do yourself in in the name of decency to society.

> another you constant insuistance that I am over weight

You are. By medical definition you are "morbidly obese".

I didn't set the standards...The AMA did. You just happen to meet the criteria.

> you advance you lies about child abuse drunkeness welfare fraud rape

I am sure all those vowels and consonants meant something to you in your own mind, Morkie, but they didn't make sense in the manner you used them.

Try again.

My daughter's not dying, Morkie, although I have had one daughter pass away already.

And I don't use any swords. I carried one it the Marine Corps, but it was just for ceremonial purposes.

> you post the vilest thing such you remark sugesting you submit to anal

I don't submit to any kind of "anal" sex, Fatboy...That was your self-humiliating demonstration of your incompetence with English.

As for your own sexual perversions, that's stuff you put out there on your own. Ya shudda kept that stuff off line. That it has been a source of constant embarrassment to you was your own doing.

In the "Jerry Todd" series of books for boys, there is a recurring character identified as Sammy Rail, aka "Horsefoot". Horsefoot is described as looking like an overstuffed pillow with a rope tied around it. He coughs up nonsensical statements at odd intervals. As if his odd looks and lack of intellect aren't enough, Horsefoot stutters. Among his more memorable lines from various books are, "K-k-kethcup and beans" and "L-l-liver and on-onions". He reminds me of an all-too-frequent r.r.a.p. poster.

Why is it that Mark soon ends up souring even the friendliest of conversations????
Those Hams tried to be civil to Mark, but within a few short comments he was accusing one of stalking and another of libel.
Mark doesn't know the definition of either....

Annie's Naturals Issues Voluntary Nationwide Allergy Alert on Undeclared Soy in 8 fl oz. All-Natural Shiitake & Sesame Vinaigrette
Contact:
Aimee Sands
707-254-3700 ext. 103

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- Napa, CA -- February 11, 2008 -- Annie's Naturals is voluntarily recalling 686 cases of 8 fl oz. bottles of all-natural Shiitake & Sesame Vinaigrette. The product could be mislabeled and may contain soy sauce (contains soy and wheat) and sesame that were not declared on the ingredient statement. People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to soy run the risk of serious allergic reaction if they consume this product.

There have been no illnesses or injuries reported to date. Anyone concerned about an illness should contact a physician immediately.

Affected product was shipped to grocery and natural food stores in California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Washington, between December 20, 2007 and February 6, 2008.

Consumers can most easily identify impacted product by looking at the product labels - the front label says Shiitake & Sesame Vinaigrette, but the back label and ingredient statement say Low Fat Honey Mustard Vinaigrette. Only dressings with UPC # 0-92325-33319-2 with a Best By Date of 02/20/09/1/E and 02/20/09/2/E are affected.

Organic Shiitake & Sesame Vinaigrette, 16 oz. bottles of Shiitake & Sesame Vinaigrette, and other Annie's Naturals products are not affected by this recall.

The problem occurred during a product changeover when back labels for Honey Mustard Vinaigrette were commingled with back labels for all-natural Shiitake Sesame Vinaigrette. The Honey Mustard Vinaigrette products were unaffected.

Consumers who have purchased 8 fl oz all natural Shiitake & Sesame Vinaigrette are urged to return the product to the place of purchase for a full refund or may call Annie's Naturals Consumer Relations at 1.800.288.1089 to obtain a coupon for a free product.

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

See's Candies, Inc. Issues Allergy Alert on Undeclared Milk in Semi Sweet Chocolate Chips Media Contact:
Susan Pasarow / Sarah Siler
Murphy O'Brien Public Relations
310-586-7127 / 310-586-7149

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- February 12, 2008 -- See's Candies, Inc. of San Francisco, Calif., is recalling 16-ounce bags of See's Candies Semi Sweet Chocolate Chips because the product may contain undeclared traces of milk. People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to milk run the risk of serious or life-threatening allergic reaction if they consume these products.

The product was distributed through See's owned retail shops in California, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon, Washington, Utah, Colorado, Idaho, Hawaii, New Mexico, and Illinois. Licensees of See's also sold the product in Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Texas and internationally in Japan and Hong Kong. See's Mail Order department sold small quantities countrywide.

The product is sold in a black and white See's logo flexible bag. This recall applies to all code dates (30757, 31327, 32067, 33157, and 23397).

There is one reported allergen reaction attributed to this product.

See's Candies confirmed in its investigation that the product was produced on a line that also produces milk chocolates as a follow-up to a consumer contact.

Concerned consumers who have packages of 16-ounce See's Candies Semi Sweet Chocolate Chips should return them to the shops where they were purchased for a full refund. If the product was received through mail order or direct shipment, consumers should contact See's Consumer Affairs at 1 800-789-7337 for product return instructions. Any consumers with questions about this recall should also contact See's Consumer Affairs at 1 800-789-7337.

2622. Concerning N9OGL (from today's ARRL Letter)

Today's ARRL Letter carried an item on Todd Daugherty N9OGL's FCC woes. Todd used to be a poster to r.r.a.p. He had boasted of operating pirate TV and radio stations in the past and is on the record as having stated that he used power in excess of that permitted by FCC Part 15 in the operation of something he called Omega One. He was advised by several r.r.a.p. posters on more than one occasion, that the power he claimed he used was illegal under Part 15. Despite Todd's claim to the contrary, it appears that those who advised him were correct.

==> FCC ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

Todd E. Daugherty, N9OGL, of Taylorville, Illinois, received a follow-up Warning Notice from the FCC, alleging Daugherty "operat[ed] an unlicensed radio station on, among other frequencies, 6.950 and 13.556 MHz. The information indicates that the signal strengths of these transmissions exceed the power limit of Part 15 of the Commission's rules for unlicensed transmitters." In November 2007, Daugherty received a Warning Notice from the Commission, giving him 20 days to respond to allegations regarding his operating practices. The FCC also wanted to know if he has used the name Todd O'Dochartaigh, N9OGL, and if so, asked him to describe the circumstances under which he used it and the dates. Dougherty was warned that the FCC "will use all relevant information before it, including information that you disclose in your reply, to determine what, if any, enforcement action is warranted in this matter. Such action may include license revocation, suspension of your operator privileges or monetary forfeiture (fine). Fines normally range from $7500 to $10,000." The FCC, in response to Daugherty's replies, said, "Your response to the Enforcement Bureau received on November 6, 2007 was insufficient and contradictory, and indicates a misunderstanding of the Part 15 power limits for unlicensed stations. For example, you stated that your power levels were in compliance with Part 15 of the Commission's rules, yet in statements made in 2006 and 2007 describing your shortwave station 'Omega One' you stated that you were operating at 5 watts, then 10 watts and later 50 and 100 watts." Daugherty was warned that "Such unlicensed operation would be a violation of Section 301 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 18 U.S.C. S: 301, and would subject you to a monetary forfeiture (fine) or imprisonment, or both."

Travis L. Maltese, AD5CT, of Edna, Texas, received a Warning Notice from the FCC to stay off of the W5DSC and K5SOI repeaters, both licensed in Victoria, Texas. The Warning Notice stated, "The trustees of the W5DSC and K5SOI repeaters have requested in writing that you refrain from use of the repeaters. The letters were issued as a result of your failure to follow operational rules set forth by the licensee/control operators of the repeater systems for their users. You were previously requested verbally to refrain from using the system, but have apparently ignored both verbal and written requests." Maltese was told that he was expected to "abide by the requests to stay off the W5DSC and K5SOI systems and any other such requests by repeater licensees, control operators or trustees. If you use these repeaters again after receipt of this letter, we will initiate enforcement action against your license, which may include revocation, monetary forfeiture (fine) or a modification proceeding to restrict the frequencies on which you may operate AD5CT. Fines normally range from $7,500 to $10,000."

Go back and reread the original post. It said that several people had warned Todd that he was at risk of an enforcement action, and that Todd had denied he was at risk. In fact, Todd was denying that the basic laws of electromagnetic radiation applied to Omega One.

And now we know the rest of the story. Todd is in possession of two love letters from the FCC, and my warning has come to pass.

I see that you are still lying about the loss of your first blog to Dloyd

It was NOT taken back by you, unless you consider your whining and begging and Dloyd's ultimate generosity in giving it back to you as "taking" it back.
In a loose sense, you did "take" it back, but only after it was relinquished to you out of sheer pity.
I'm sure that Dloyd now regrets having felt sorry for you.

2634. Was it arson or did it really happen?

Mark's alleged house fire in Illinois:

On December 31, 2007 you said," by local wit an email from some one in the ng as I have answered many time someone on anyof the Rec radios groups? What are the police doing about it some 2 or 5 years later? police finaly jail the torch but no action against the guy from the NG claiming I was a pedo

On March 03, 2007 you said, "I choose the path of resistance after the escalating filth result inthe posting of the address of another man mark mrak morgan as mine and his home being burned down"

On November 07, 2008 you said, (on Ham Island) "the cycle will go on the only question is how I tried leaving the web in 2000 the threats went offline into the real wrold with email to everyone around til they/he found someone unstable enough o believe an anonomous email and BURN my home becuase someone said I was X.

my home of those days is bruned out shell those that were getting the harrasing email are in jail the persp who are the same folks now as then are still at, still haven't manged to settle heh insurance on that matter

On February 14, 2008 you said in RRAP, "they deleyed for some time but are finaly nogating for setlement but they delayed the settle ment in part because you or people like youhave cominacated the unsopprted allegation 9 anbd the unsupertablesinc i could establisgh my wherabout that I did the deed, but twith an arson it always takes for ever to settle

So, Mark. To date your lies are difficult to keep up with. How did this happen, if it even DID happen?

You have said somebody else's house was burned down, someone with the same name as you. Then you claim that a neighbor burned your house down after receiving an email that you are a pedophile. The question that comes to mind is, how did somebody find out your alleged neighbor's email address? Why not was the email traced and the accuser brought to justice? That could easily have been accomplished.

You go on to say that your whereabouts on the night of the alleged fire were questioned and that you had to establish an alibi. This sounds to me as if you were or still are the prime suspect in the alleged arson.

Your comment that the "torch" is now languishing behind bars is also very highly suspect. As one who has had experience investigating an arson or two, Mark, your story is odd to say the least.

You say that the insurance company is just now negotiating with you over a settlement, after several years since the alleged incident. What does not ring true here, Mark, is that if the alleged arsonist is indeed incarcerated and, by extrapolation, either confessed or has been found guilty in a Court of Law, then the insurance company would have long ago settled with you since the guilty party has been brought to justice.

The fact that you claim a settlement is just now being negotiated leads me to believe that you are lying yet again. In fact, if it has taken years to even come close to an insurance settlement, I would have to speak from past experience that the insurance company still considers you to be a prime suspect even though they cannot prove it.

Yes, insurance settlements, in arson cases, CAN take years, but ONLY when the insurance company suspects the homeowner of being the arsonist. Why? Because in most cases the insurance companies refuse to pay full value and thereby "reward" the homeowner who was looking for a fast buck.

So. You are either lying about the entire alleged arson so as to garner pity as being a poor, beset upon "victim" or you are lying about the person who you claim is the responsible party. You've told so many convoluted tales about this alleged arson over the years that you simply cannot be believed.

I suspect that this arson story is a result of your kooky imagination and if it is indeed fact, then you better get your stories straight.

Whose house was it? Yours or somebody else's at another address with your same name as you said?

Don't answer. You will only spin yet more lies and nobody will believe a word you submit.

to me the biggest reason paypal/ebay sucks and why id NEVER ever use paypal cause if someone you seel something to has a totally bogus complaignt you could find yourself short the money and w/little recourse

if i get paid i don't want anyone to have the ability to just 'take' my money away putting a burden on me to get it back, to wich i might not i sell practically nothing anyplace so no biggie for me and as mostly a occionasional buyer if rules favor the buyer iam happy but for a few thngs i might like to sell i'd never use pp for that reason i believe this issue is well documented

2640. The truth about Marks house fire

We can all stop accusing Mark of burning down his own house...Why? you might ask. Well, for once Mark is telling the truth, he didn't burn down his own house. As a matter of fact no one did. That's right it never happened, no fire at Markies house. It's just another one of his lies, an attempt to garner sympathy and to get some amateurs on his side.

How do I know this? Well, lets just say I have a relative who has access to such information.

A few unknown facts about Mark: he has been arrested for shoplifting, ticketed for driving an unregistered vehicle, ordered by the court to attend anger management class for kicking his wife, and he was viciously assaulted/beaten by a 19 year old (Danny Galopolos) acquaintance.

In Marks defence he has never been accused of child molestation, not that he hasn't done it, he just hasn't been caught.

But the funniest one yet....Social Services has contacted Mark about his alleged chicken fucking.

Just thought you might like to know.

But of course your hundreds of daily posts are not "spaming", are they, Stupid?

Too bad that DeLorean spoiled your ability to flood at will.
Now you are stuck with Google and that, because of the limits, eats at your craw, doesn't it?

You can no longer trash this group and it is a much better place because of DeLorean's efforts.

As usual, you could not/would not answer my question. No coherent answer exists.
Cease your false accusations NOW!
When all else fails, you have no retort but to resort to your typical weak, idiotic accusations of harrassment or blackmail. You are that little boy in the tree crying "WOLF!"

It is no wonder that you have become the butt of so many jokes. You have brought the Mark Morgan derision upon yourself.

I will if YOU will.

Would you care to draw out a plan of truce?

Tell you what. I'll propose a truce. I will post only ten times a day in RRAP if you promise to do the same. I will further suggest that I will not cross post.
This does NOT mean ten times a day from each of your Google accounts, but ten times total.

I will stop responding to the posts of others if you will follow suit.
No excuses, no lame claims of defending one's self...just a cessation of lame posts.

First, Mark, you have been spoofed with the earlier "truce" plea. You fell for it hook, line, and sinker and I saved your meandering comments to my Mark Morgan file.

Simply put, I baited you and you took the bait. I expected no less from you and you did not disappoint me. I KNEW that you would have to have the last word, as always.

You in turn tell me, "stop trying to limit my rights", but is that not exactly what you have admitted to doing with your floods in RRAP? Sure it is. You have openly admitted that you flood RRAP to deny others their rights of use of the group.

As an aside, there will be no "truce" insofar as I am concerned. That was a ploy that you fell for.
So long as you pollute RRAP, I will be there to refute your outright lies and kookie comments.

I can only thank DeLorean (again) for his well placed efforts in taking the time to get your Teranews account aborted. We all owe DeLorean a pat on the back for diminishing your ability to trash RRAP.

Mark proved you all wrong, he did post to QRZ yesterday. However, the funny thing is that Mark actually posted 3 times to the thread and was TOTALLY ignored, not one response, nada, nothing,,,bwahahahahahah! The only way Mark gets attention is by flooding and because the QRZ Admin controls Mark, and most on QRZ know that he is as busy body kook, he is ignored.

American Red Cross Urges Public to Re-Build Blood Supply with Immediate Response

Baltimore, MD - February 13, 2008: Yesterday and today's winter weather cancelled several blood drives and left donor chairs empty at many other American Red Cross donation sites. Following the low donation rates through the winter, this sudden drop in appointments leaves the blood supply at an even greater risk for shortage. In response, the Greater Chesapeake and Potomac Region of the American Red Cross is urging all eligible whole blood donors to call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE to schedule a donation appointment right away. Platelet donors can call 1-800-272-2123 to schedule an appointment.

"School closures and liberal leave polices at many businesses forced us to cancel several blood drives and other drives have been poorly attended due to the weather," said Gary J. Ouellette, C.E.O. of the GC&P Region. "When donation rates drop, the community blood supply can diminish quickly. When the weather clears we will need to make up for that loss. We need to collect 1000 units of blood on a daily basis to meet the needs of local patients. That is why we need all eligible donors to call 1-800 GIVE LIFE right away to schedule an appointment."

Despite many medical advances, there is no substitute for human blood, and volunteer blood donations are the only patient lifeline. Local trauma victims, cancer patients, premature babies, and those with chronic blood disorders depend on a safe and adequate blood supply for survival.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO GIVE BLOOD? DONORS MUST:

• Be generally in good health;

• Be at least 17 years of age, or in the states of Maryland & Pennsylvania, 16 years of age w/ written parental consent;

• Weigh no less than 110 pounds;

• Have NOT received a tattoo within the past year;

• Have NOT donated whole blood within the past 56 days.

Members of the community are asked to call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE immediately to schedule an appointment to donate at any American Red Cross Donor Center or community blood drive. Information about Regional Blood Donor Centers or community blood drive locations and times can be found at www.my-redcross.org.

Mark being forced to lead such a fucked up existence certainly makes one thing obvious......Even God picks on Mark. Mark face the facts even God enjoys abusing you on a daily basis. He made you retarded, dyslexic, ugly and gay. Why? Because, just like everyone else he enjoys being mean to you.

One thing is undeniably clear, as much as we all hate you God hates you even more.

Wow! God loves everyone but Mark. That's sad.

Mark, you have sinned against the Lord God Almighty and therefore you shall not inherit his kingdom!

Mark C Morgan is doomed to burn in hell!

Oh, my! Such scathing commentary!
Mark must have really ticked you off.

Slow down, take a deep breath and settle down.

Mark is not worth becoming upset over.
He is a nobody.
He is a kook.
He is cheap humor.

He should have NO input on your daily life in any way, shape or form.
If you allow his idiocy to anger you, Mark sees this as some strange, simpleton form of one-upmanship.
Mark thrives on the angry posts and likewise seeks recognition, even though he is disliked. He NEEDS the attention. He has little else going for him, don't you see?

Mark is entertainment. Period.
Mark is best looked at as cheap entertainment to be shut off and ignored at YOUR choosing. YOU are in control, no he.

He doesn't count for much, so take him at his cheap, face value.

I've always enjoyed reading Dee's posts. They are always well thought out and extremely well said.
It is refreshing to realize that, yes, there are still some few individuals hereabouts who can write well and express themselves intelligently.

I find it depressing that we have one detractor in our midst who feels it necessary to resort to cheap, name-calling where Dee is concerned.
Still, I have to remind myself to consider the source and to subsequently ignore the below-the-belt, tawdry comments.

Dee, I would enjoy contacting you on HF one of these days. I am confident that you are every ounce of a Lady on HF as you are here on Usenet.

Unfortunately, I cannot submit my name or call at this time in this forum.
There are some who would love to have that information and I distrust them, one and all.
I'm sure you understand.

I agree, and the fact remains that Mark was all but ignored. Mark now professes that he was PM'd, which appears to indicate that no one on QRZ will converse with Mark in public. I suppose they don't want the embarassment of being associated with Mark KB9RQZ.

Furthermore, it appears that all of Mark's alleged friends must be in the closet, afraid to have their association known, or come to his aid in public. Didn't Mark indicate a while back that we are all responsible for Steve's actions against Mark, because we did not come to his aid and defense during his time in need. It appears that Mark's friends are no better than anyone on here who oppeses Mark's actions, because they have yet to show and come to his defense. The lack thereof, and in using Mark's logic, they also are equally responsible for our actions.

Some friends, huh Morgan..Bwahahaha!.

Morkie, it is still an urban legend and there is no reason to call Cell phone numbers have been available to Telemarketers for several years, as a matter of fact according to the Deparment of Labor the number of Telemarketer employment positions have diminsihed substantially since the Do Not Call Registry began. Very little activity from them these days.

No Mark, I am intellegent enough to put it all together and see that the information implies that you need to get your number on the registry before the date they release the cell numbers to the telemaketers, thus beating the deadline. I truely feel sorry for your pathetic mental state (BIF), but if you can't navigate a post that requires average deductive reasoning skills, I suggest that you sit on the sidelines and just observe.

Aarrrgh, BuZZard, lad, where be your Master's Mate who was always saying the same things wot you did and pretendin' he wos so hard he could crack saltines? Wot a cracker he wos an' no mistake, eh BuZZy? Do 'ee remember when he tried to flood out the demon.local place? Why, all we did was open the sluices and see the poor old Kunts efforts go right down the drains.

I've even taken the trouble to pass on how to handle them sluices and stuff to Dave The Fat Sarge in uk.local.surrey just in case they ever find themselves inundated. Aarrrgh, but I doubt o' course if any skinny malink of a alleged buccaneer ever dare do such a thing now a days for people like Dave The Fat Sergeant from uls and James Follett the Reichfuhrer of uls will pursue you and your cronies to the ends of the earth and also get you accounts cancelled!

Aarrrgh, BuZZard, lad, were 'ee aware that them two beings already have the power to even stop floods in their tracks? Oh yes!

Both of 'em b'aint called Canutey Kunts for nothing, so they b'aint.

Stay away, BuZZard, lad, if 'ee have any single clue about wot you might be a-tangling with, like.

Aarrgh, K.A.Cannon, lad (after changin' the orgy) I have reported this broken down old bird to the various authorities who might either take him into care or dispose of him in a humane manner.

There are many more such critturs hanging about an' clutterin' up uk.local groups and it is time open season was declared on 'em.

I remain, sir, yours indubitably,

To all of us who love pets.....

This is one of the kindest things I've ever experienced. I have no way to know who sent it, but there is a beautiful soul working in the dead letter office of the US postal service.

Our 14 year old dog, Abbey, died last month. The day after she died, my 4 year old daughter Meredith was crying and talking about how much she missed Abbey. She asked if we could write a letter to God so that when Abbey got to heaven, God would recognize her. I told her that I thought we could so she dictated these words:

Dear God,

Will you please take care of my dog? She died yesterday and is with you in heaven. I miss her very much. I am happy that you let me have her as my dog even though she got sick.

I hope you will play with her. She likes to play with balls and to swim. I am sending a picture of her so when you see her. You will know that she is my dog. I really miss her.

Love, Meredith.

We put the letter in an envelope with a picture of Abbey and Meredith and addressed it to God/Heaven. We put our return address on it. Then Meredith pasted several stamps on the front of the envelope because she said it would take lots of stamps to get the letter all the way to heaven. That afternoon she dropped it into the letter box at the post office. A few days later, she asked if God had gotten the letter yet. I told her that I thought He had.

Yesterday, there was a package wrapped in gold paper on our front porch addressed, "To Meredith," in an unfamiliar hand. Meredith opened it. Inside was a book by Mr. Rogers called, "When a Pet Dies." Taped to the inside front cover was the letter we had written to God in its opened envelope. On the opposite page was the picture of Abbey & Meredith and this note:

Dear Meredith,

Abbey arrived safely in heaven.

Having the picture was a big help. I recognized Abbey right away.

Abbey isn't sick anymore. Her spirit is here with me just like it stays in your heart. Abbey loved being your dog. Since we don't need our bodies in heaven, I don't have any pockets to keep your picture in, so I am sending it back to you in this little book for you to keep and have something to remember Abbey by.

Thank you for the beautiful letter and thank your mother for helping you write it and sending it to me. What a wonderful mother you have. I picked her especially for you.

I send my blessings every day and remember that I love you very much.

By the way, I'm easy to find, I am wherever there is love.

Love,
God

Dear Sir/Madam,

It has been brought to my attention that you believe that you are in charge of the internet.

That is in fact incorrect.

When my husband, Mr. Trellis, passed away 2 years ago, he left me in charge.

I have the rule book here, should anyone wish to verify the fact that I am 'de facto' in charge of the internet.

Other kind folk of the internet: Please disregard all posts from buzz COCK.

I thank you for your indulgence.

Mrs. Trellis.

Q. Why did cavemen drag their women around by their hair?
A. Because if they drug them around by their feet they'd fill there hair up with dirt.

Two storks are sitting in their nest:
a father stork and baby stork. The baby stork is crying and crying and father stork is trying to calm him. "Don't worry, son. Your mother will come back. She's only bringing people babies and making them happy."

The next night, it's father's turn to do the job. Mother and son are sitting in the nest, the baby stork is crying, and mother is saying, "Son, your father will be back as soon as possible, but now he's bringing joy to new mommies and daddies."

A few days later, the stork's parents are desperate:
their son is absent from the nest all night! Shortly before dawn, he returns and the parents ask him where he's been all night.

The baby stork says, "Nowhere. Just scaring the crap out of college students!"

A papa mole, a mama mole, and a baby mole all live together in a little mole hole.

One day, papa mole sticks his head out of the hole, sniffs the air and said, 'Yum! I smell maple syrup!'

The mama mole sticks her head out of the hole, sniffs the air and said, 'Oh, Yum! I smell honey!'

Now baby mole is trying to stick his head out of the hole to sniff the air, but can't because the bigger moles are in the way.
This makes him whine, 'Geez, all I can smell is....

MOLASSES!
(Yes, you know you're gonna pass it on!)

I guess if Mr Adair N8WWM doesn't mind flooding the groups with his pornographic posts, Chip won't mind the emails condemning them:

Walter (Chip) Carstensen
President, Buckeye Cablevision
E-mail: ccarstensen@cablesystem.com

Please forward on this url with a note explaining your disgust with "Cablesystem" allowing an individual to act like this using their services for almost 3 years now.
For that fact, maybe the post themselves should be forwarded too.

Mark Morgan KB9RQZ has been goaded into acting so foolishly and being such a nuisance for the past few years, that finally he is looked upon as a fool and kook by most hams on the net. Review any real thread on RRAM, QRZ, or even Eham where Mark has ever commented, and one of several things happens, he is told to get lost, he is ridiculed, or he is ignored all together. We can take pride in the fact that we have accomplished an worthwhile objective, that Mark can only posts flooding remarks here or on nimbusters where folks get to poke fun at him. His messages on real ham radio threads are virtually never read because we have successfully, with Mark's help, have discredited him.

I never whine but just make you act like the fool you apparently are, my name is not hidden, I am Dloyd Lavies, and you wish someone would stalk you, but you are not going to get your wish kooksucker.

Mark WANTS you to respond. He needs that to justify his very existance.

He then glories in positing all sorts of false claims of Libel, Stalking, and whatever other Mark Morgan Laws For Dummies that he can come up with on the spur of the moment.
Conspiracy theories? Mark has dozens of them.
Intent to stalk? Mark makes them up as he goes.

Then, out of the blue, he attacks innocent posters by accusing them of being part and parcel of the alleged attacks on him because these innocent posters did nothing to dissuade you, me, or others of poking jest at him. (does he really expect them to defend him?)
In a nutshell, Mark paints all of us with a very broad Mark Morgan brush...WE are the interlopers while he is the self-described, innocent, beset-upon "victum".

This is all OUR fault, Dloyd. Mark had nothing to do with his unpopularity.
Right?

Mark was going about his merry way of posting 800-900 times a day when we, GASP!, had the audacity to complain. In Mark's warped mind, WE are the reason he trashed this group, not the other way around.

It is kinda like saying that if a malicious clown throws a stinky, fifty pound bag of wet cow shit on your car, it is YOUR fault for parking your car where you did.

Ignore Mark.

Mark Morgan KB9RQZ of Chassell, Michigan, No I don't remember, I can't remember things that I have not done. However, your forgery of solicting sex with a child to yourself through your own blog which was under your control does not make "dloyd" a pimp. At the least it makes you an enabler allowing such an illegal act to go through your blog, and at the most, which is believe is closer to the truth, it just makes you into one sick homosexual Pedo fruit who enjoys making up stories involving kiddie sex which complements your other sick sexual proclivity.

I've said it before and I will say it again...folks keep your children away from people like Mark C. Morgan. It is apparent to me that bi-sexuals like Mark obviously dream about kiddie sex because he likes to make up unproven stories about it and can't stop talking about it.

Good luck being accepted on Ham Island, QRZ, and Eham, where they continue to point the finger at the oddity known as Mark C. Morgan KB9RQZ ...mission accomplished.

Oh really, just a small sampling:

From Ham Island, in response to your garbage and false accusations....

"No temper here, but everyone here will see you for who you really are. I gave you benefit of doubt, but I was wrong."

From Eham

"KB9RQZ, I can "showloow" this stuff just fine. If you can tell me who put a gun to your head, forced you to click on the link and read the thread, I'll personally punish the person and see to it that you are never forced to read threads about CW ever again. Nobody should be forced to read anything they don't want to read. OTOH, nobody should be forced to refrain from posting information about CW either. Its a free country. You enjoy your freedom while the rest of us enjoy ours.
Ten-four good buddy?"

"My 5 year old writes better than KB9RQZ"

From QRZ:

"KB9RQZ if you don't have anything factual to say you should keep quiet, this is a moderated board but not moderated by the FCC"

What enforcement problems? What does the noise floor have to do with enforcement? How does BPL have anything to do with enforcement? If you want to start a thread with technical implications give some real facts and cite the source of your conclusions...or are you just pulling facts out of your ass again.

In my opinion Mark KB9RQZ will laud false charges at You.....
According to Mark Morgan KB9RQZ, he has already reported K3VR and now W4NTI, for what I believe are false manufactured allegations. In my opinion, Mark reported a crime that I believe he may have actually commited himself, by first manufacturing a message through his own blog which would suggest a sex crime involving a child, and then second, by sending it to himself. Why would I believe such a thing about Mr. Morgan? Simple, Mark has admited that he will lie when he feels it is necessary, he has shown that he will persue other hams off of the net in an attempt to affect their off-line lives and livelyhood. Further, based on Mr. Morgan's posts, I believe that after years of reporting of what he perceives are crimes against him to Law Enforcement, which apparently have been ignored, Mark is frustrated with being ignored, and demands that law enforcement take him seriously. What better way for Mark to accomplish this task by inventing crimes involving children. Everyone knows that LE takes crimes involving children seriously. So far it appears that law enforcement is once again taking little interest in persuing another one of Mark's claims. However, time will tell. Certainly, if someone from law enforcement contacts me, of course I will cooperate with any investigation, and will assist LE as necessary. Nevertheless, I post a notice of caution to anyone who uses their true amateur radio calls or identities ANYWHERE on the amateur groups or even the internet. Mr. Mark C. Morgan KB9RQZ has implied that if he sees a post from anyone whom he believes even remotely could be "dloyd", he will report that person as being responsible for what I believe are falsified trumped up charges invented by Mr. Morgan. IMO there is an unstable ham radio operator among us with twisted logic, who will stop at nothing to take revenge for the crimes that he perceives have been commited against him. He has implied that he does not care who he reports and collectively we are all responsible for anything that has ever happened to him in connection with usenet. Why? because we did not come to Mark's aide and defense during "his time in need." Mark cannot accept the fact that there is no widespread fraternity within the ARS, and it is not anyone's responsibility to render him aide on the internet.

Once again I will add this statement of fact...

I am not Steve K4YZ.

I am not Brian K3VR

I am not Dan W4NTI

Mark should leave these good folks alone and as he always says..."you should mind your own affairs." But since I believe that Mark manufactured the evidence..and he is such a good citizen, I believe that he should turn himself in for his own crime.

BPL does not raise the noise floor to any significant level, and the newer BPL devices by Motorola have negilible effect on ham frequencies.

It is my opinion, therefore it is not a lie. I stated that it was my opinion, I did not say it was a fact. You may not agree, but again disagreeing does not make it a lie.

In my opinion Mark KB9RQZ will laud false charges at You.....
According to Mark Morgan KB9RQZ, he has already reported K3VR and now W4NTI, for what I believe are false manufactured allegations. In my opinion, Mark reported a crime that I believe he may have actually commited himself, by first manufacturing a message through his own blog which would suggest a sex crime involving a child, and then second, by sending it to himself. Why would I believe such a thing about Mr. Morgan? Simple, Mark has admited that he will lie when he feels it is necessary, he has shown that he will persue other hams
off
of the net in an attempt to affect their off-line lives and livelyhood. Further, based on Mr. Morgan's posts, I believe that after years of reporting of what he perceives are crimes against him to Law Enforcement, which apparently have been ignored, Mark is frustrated
with being ignored, and demands that law enforcement take him seriously. What better way for Mark to accomplish this task by inventing crimes involving children. Everyone knows that LE takes crimes involving children seriously. So far it appears that law enforcement is once again taking little interest in persuing another one of Mark's claims. However, time will tell. Certainly, if someone from law enforcement contacts me, of course I will cooperate with any investigation, and will assist LE as necessary. Nevertheless, I post
a notice of caution to anyone who uses their true amateur radio calls or identities ANYWHERE on the amateur groups or even the internet. Mr.
Mark C. Morgan KB9RQZ has implied that if he sees a post from anyone whom he believes even remotely could be "dloyd", he will report that person as being responsible for what I believe are falsified trumped up charges invented by Mr. Morgan. IMO there is an unstable ham radio operator among us with twisted logic, who will stop at nothing to take revenge for the crimes that he perceives have been commited against him. He has implied that he does not care who he reports and collectively we are all responsible for anything that has ever happened to him in connection with usenet. Why? because we did not come to Mark's aide and defense during "his time in need." Mark cannot accept the fact that there is no widespread fraternity within the ARS, and it is not anyone's responsibility to render him aide on the internet.

Once again I will add this statement of fact...

I am not the following persons that Mark keeps insisting that at least one is "dloyd"...

I am not Steve K4YZ.

I am not Brian K3VR

I am not Dan W4NTI

Mark should leave these good folks alone and as he always says..."you should mind your own affairs." But since I believe that Mark manufactured the evidence..and he is such a good citizen, I believe that he should turn himself in for his own crime.

I've supported BPL since Motorola has shown promise for this venue of access to the net for those who could not get access or afford to buy into more expensive ways to access the internet. The newer technologies have proven that ham radio and BPL can exist in the same area, even the ARRL has stated that after using BPL devices from Motorola, BPL and Ham Radio can co-exist. Whether you (Mark) support it or not has no bearing on my opinion of BPL. However, I do agree that the older devices and technologies from ambient need work. but like any new technology, you have to learn to crawl before you can walk, and then run.

Why should I face up for something I have not done? I whole heartedly believe that you manufactured the sick kiddy sex e-mail to yourself through your own blog, after all it is your blog that is under your control, so you allowed it to happen as a facilitator. Frankly, I do not know how to send email through your blog. And once again I have to remind you that I have not been here for years, barely two. It is by your own actions when you decided to attack me and hi jack posts, and accused me of being involved when I was not, that forced me to get involved. In the begining I asked you to stop hijacking my threads and stop with your nonsense, and you basically told me to fuck off. So it is what it is...I hope you have been having a good time. but I doubt it with the amount of whining that you do, So enjoy...

Once again I post this....

"Mark Morgan KB9RQZ of Chassell, Michigan, No I don't remember, I can't remember things that I have not done. However, your forgery IMO of solicting sex with a child to yourself through your own blog which was under your control does not make "dloyd" a pimp. At the least it makes you an enabler allowing such an illegal act to go through your blog, and at the most, which I believe is closer to the truth, it just makes you into one sick homosexual Pedo fruit who enjoys making up stories involving kiddie sex which complements your other sick sexual proclivity.

I've said it before and I will say it again...folks keep your children away from people like Mark C. Morgan. It is apparent to me IMO that bisexuals like Mark obviously dream about kiddie sex because he likes to make up unproven stories about it and can't stop talking about it."

Hams Encouraged by NEW Motorola BPL Technology
Newington, Conn., May 23, 2005 --ARRL, the national association for Amateur Radio, announced today that "The ARRL is pleased to hear Motorola's announcement of its Powerline LV system. This is the first Access Broadband over Power Line (BPL) system that has been designed from the start with radio interference concerns in mind."

http://www.remote.arrl.org/news/stories/2005/08/29/1/?nc=1

BPL at HQ: ARRL Cooperating in BPL System Experiment
NEWINGTON, CT, Aug 29, 2005--BPL has come to ARRL Headquarters, and preliminary indications are that the newly installed Motorola Powerline LV system will prove Amateur Radio-friendly. Motorola approached ARRL last fall seeking input on a BPL design that could avoid many or most of the interference problems that have plagued some other BPL systems. This past May, Motorola introduced its Powerline LV wireless-to-low voltage BPL solution at the United Telecom Council's "Telecom 2005." The ARRL said at the time that it was "encouraged" by Motorola's approach but reserved judgment until it had the chance to see a system up close. A Motorola Powerline LV system was put into operation at Maxim Memorial Station W1AW this week.

http://www.arrl.org/news/stories/2007/04/25/102/?nc=1

ARRL Chief Executive Officer David Sumner, K1ZZ expressed appreciation for Motorola's approach to the thorny issue of radio interference from BPL systems. In an effort to minimize interference, particularly to the Amateur Radio bands, Motorola designed its Powerline LV system in close cooperation with the League's technical staff, Sumner noted. A test stand Access BPL system was in operation briefly at ARRL Headquarters. Measurements and subjective listening tests on the ham bands showed that Powerline LV was Amateur Radio-friendly.

What that you have an obvious problem with kiddie sex. Unfortunately,
I believe I do prove that point. I believe, (which I hate to admit) that Woger is right that you may be to some degree a pedo, why else would you fabricate an email about something as heinous as pimping out a kid..that is just plain sick.

How so Mark, I said I supported BPL since the BPL devices from Motorola has shown promise, how is that unsupported?

I even provided three links to prove my point...where are your links about noise floor issues as you stated, or where the good folks at the FCC trying to hide something, or where there are problems with enforcement?

Just more of your unproven allegations...why laud false charges at the FCC now?

Why would you have that, after all you reported two folks for the same alleged crime...they both could not have done it so you falsely accused one of them.

How so Mark, I said I supported BPL since the BPL devices from Motorola has shown promise, how is that unsupported?

I even provided three links to prove my point...where are your links about noise floor issues as you stated, or where the good folks at the FCC trying to hide something, or where there are problems with enforcement?

Just more of your unproven allegations...why laud false charges at the FCC now?
....

Because Mark is a societal misfit. A kook.
That is what kooks do.

He bought a Firebird 500 at a flea market where his alleged wife goes to earn a few Shekels on weekends.

It took this No-Coder many moons to discover the value of grounding his stations, something he alludes to on one of his dozens of blogs as being a "new tecical hint" blog for new Hams.
He says he has a Yaesu FT 847. He said the receive was greatly enhanced when he finally grounded the rig. Apparently he did not read the manual that came with the 847. Specifically, page 8 that deals with Base Station Earth Grounding.

This is the result of No-Coders being able to pass a simple, written test to get a General license.

He once told another Ham that he was a Ham, "just like you.". That statement is patently false.

When KB9RQZ can attend a VEC session and pass the same CW tests that many of us did, then and only then can he say that he is a Ham, "just like you".

Until then he is nothing more than a glorified Technician who wormed his way into a General classification via a back door.

Legal? Yes. But a Ham? No.

Your entire life looks to revolve around a few of the guys in rrcb.

He has mental health issues. Specifically a pathological obsession with policing CB'ers. No one cares about his crusade and he is blind to that fact. He only makes a fool of himself with his obsession.

Britney Spears has the same problem in that she too can't see how others perceive her. She is looked upon as a self obsessed low class that has no idea of what an idiot she is making of herself.

Hold on here. One simple question: Does the illegal activity that he is crusading against have any negative impact on legitimate users of the CB bands? I don't know this answer; I'm not a CBer. But if it does, I can see someone getting frustrated if they can't get it enforced by their local FCC and decides to take things into his own hands, as far as at least gathering evidence. I'm sure he'll turn what he's found in to the proper authorities.

But if this activity to which he objects does no harm, then he is mentally ill.

He is obsessive and making a fool of himself. He is obviously mentally ill.

Whatever it is, the fat African-American lady was so cute. I want to drink milk from her boobs after squeezing them. I want to nip her nipples and let the milk spur out!

Speaking of which,

OOooooooooooh! Check out this cream-puff's boobs!!!!!!!!!!!!

http://fatcurvystories.files.wordpress.com/2007/07/amazon-boob-mountains.png

Step on it and milk will go spraying everywhere.

I'm getting crazy just thinking about these tities.

Being African-American, this lady would have her boobs molested and mutilated to no end if she were here during slavery 300 years ago in the old south. White masters would jiggle, suckle, grab, tickle, and feel her boobs constantly. They would pinch her nipples. They'd make fun of how chubby she is and how big her boobs are.

This woman is very lucky not to have been here during times where they was racism against non-whites. Cuz she'd definitely be a target.

Salberg. As you can see, her face would stop a clock but great grandpa
Salberg always said she could suck the meat, man or beast!

http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com/users/s/a/l/Scott-A-Salberg/PHOTO/0005photo.html

She was the first prostitute in town too! Grandpa Salberg sold guns and whiskey to the Indians so they kept their scalps when others didn't. Everytime they sold whiskey to them, they had a big party with the savages dancing and farting and then they would all stop to watch Grandma Salberg suck off a Buffalo they captured. That really amused them! They never witnessed anything like that before!!

A young man goes into the Job Center in Chicago, and sees a card advertising for a Gynecologist's Assistant. Interested he goes to learn more...

"Can you give me some more details about this?" he asks the guy behind the desk.

The Job Center man sorts through his files and replies -

"Oh yes, here it is: The job entails you getting the lady patients ready for the gynecologist. You have to help them out of their underwear, lie them down and carefully wash their genital regions. You then apply shaving foam and gently shave off all their pubic hair then rub in soothing oils so that they're ready for the doctors examination.

There's an annual salary of $45,000, but you're going to have to go to Oxford, Mississippi. That's about 820 miles from here."

"Oh why, is that where the job's at?"

"No sir - that's where the end of the line is!"

I'll type you up a complaint letter, with all the relevant citations.
Figured you might need me to do it so it has proper spelling and punctuation. I'll also include the proper place to send it to at the FCC, right down to the 9 digit zip code. Send it before the postage goes up in May.

Another suggestion: a petition. Get a bunch of hams to sign a petition saying how they are tired of me and send it to the FCC.

Watch your email, Mr. Caruso.

Illegal CB'ers (keyclowns) often operate on frequencies reserved for government services in the US and other countries. One example is that above 27.405 there are frequencies reserved for coast guard and air/sea rescue in Australia, NZ, etc.

Locally, the dirty nature of CB radios being fed to class C amplifiers and other garbage type emitters causes interference to communication on other CB channels.

Harmonics of these dirty transmissions often may reach the public service bands, impeding those communications.

At the neighborhood level these illegal high powered transmissions overwhelm the capability of many home entertainment appliances to supress them. A 4 watt CB radio won't generally do this but a 4 watt CB with a dirty amplifier after it often does so.

The plain fact is that CB radios, and their "export" cousins (CB's with power, mode and frequency capabilities not allowed by the FCC and smuggled into the USA illegally) are not held to the same standards of emission purity that other transmitters are. This is beacuse at the 4 watt level they do not "pollute" at a very high level. When amplified, you get the "garbage in - garbage out" syndrome. They become VERY dirty, and cause the problems mentioned above.

The reality is that keyclowns do not care about this problem or any other problem not relating to their own idea of what they should be allowed to do. They could get amateur radio licenses and be allowed up to 1500 watts of power output but they don't WANT a ham license. They WANT to operate like they do. No rules, no consideration, no clean signal, no common sense. That is the keyclown way.

never sold any illegal radio equipment in my life, assclown. Thats a base cb, UN MODIFIED. As for the mod info, if you were smart enough to even comprehend it, it puts the radio on 10 meters.

As for jamming a repeater, as discussed before...LONG before...that was a heated discussion on the machine in question. NO PERSON was accused of jamming anything. This is just another example of how you lie to make things fit your own weird frame.

by the way, you never answered my statements, just called me names and posted this garbage...is what I said true or false?

you, however, moparhoLICK, admit to the ultimate defiling of radios...running a Collins rig on CB.

I challenge you, moparhoLICK, tell us all what is in error in the statements below...you can't cuz it is all true.

btw, what you gonna do now? threaten someone again? 'smatter butthead, can't take the truth?

Illegal CB'ers (keyclowns) often operate on frequencies reserved for government services in the US and other countries. One example is that above 27.405 there are frequencies reserved for coast guard and air/sea rescue in Australia, NZ, etc.

Locally, the dirty nature of CB radios being fed to class C amplifiers and other garbage type emitters causes interference to communication on other CB channels.

Harmonics of these dirty transmissions often may reach the public service bands, impeding those communications.

At the neighborhood level these illegal high powered transmissions overwhelm the capability of many home entertainment appliances to supress them. A 4 watt CB radio won't generally do this but a 4 watt CB with a dirty amplifier after it often does so.

The plain fact is that CB radios, and their "export" cousins (CB's with power, mode and frequency capabilities not allowed by the FCC and smuggled into the USA illegally) are not held to the same standards of emission purity that other transmitters are. This is beacuse at the 4 watt level they do not "pollute" at a very high level. When amplified, you get the "garbage in - garbage out" syndrome. They become VERY dirty, and cause the problems mentioned above.

The reality is that keyclowns do not care about this problem or any other problem not relating to their own idea of what they should be allowed to do. They could get amateur radio licenses and be allowed up to 1500 watts of power output but they don't WANT a ham license. They WANT to operate like they do. No rules, no consideration, no clean signal, no common sense. That is the keyclown way.

write your complaint letters and post them...I will correct them and

The fact is that if something illegal were going on you would have already used it as a hypocrisy cover over your keyclownism.

Bottom Line: 1. Everything I said about keyclowns is true. 2. You can't stand it 3. Nothing you have ever done has stopped it. 4.
Nothing you ever do will stop it.
Trade media with your new lover, post anything you think of, call me anything you want. The bottom line is you are totally incapable of preventing the AKC from acting. Totally incapable. It has been demonstrated now for going on 9 years. You are a keyclown, you are too stupid to get it. We know. We grin.

iIve got a Radiotelegraph Third. I have a Proof of Passing for Element Six. I have FCC form 605.

I'm reading through the FCC .pdf's on fees, and it looks like i'm going for a "new" Second" (yes/no?) and that NEW commercial licenses are fee exempt (yes/no?).

There seems to be a $60 fee to renew or renew/modify.

Do I have all the above correct?

Actually, Mark misspelled "get help" as a topic line and, after being made fun of for yet another spelling gaffe, he decided to keep the "get kelp" topic line and make it appear as if he had meant to do this all along.
Any variation Mark may have of this story will be yet another lie.

3247. THE FROG

There was this little boy about 12 years old walking down the street, dragging a flattened frog on a string behind him.

He came to a house of ill repute, and knocked on the door. When the Madam answered it, she saw the little boy and asked what he wanted. He said, "I want to have sex with one of the women inside. I have the money to buy it, and I'm not leaving until I get it."

The Madam figured, what the hell, so she told him to come in. Once in, she told him to pick any of the girls he liked. He said, "I heard all the men talking about having to get shots after making love with Amber. THAT'S the girl I want."

Since the little boy was so adamant and had the money to pay for it, the Madam told him to go to the first room on the right. He headed down the hall, dragging the squashed frog behind him.

Ten minutes later he came back, still dragging the frog, paid the Madam, and headed out the door.

The Madam stopped him and asked, "Why did you pick the only girl in the place with a disease, instead of one of the others?"

He said, "Well, tonight when I get home, my parents are going out to a restaurant to eat, leaving me at home with a baby-sitter. After they leave, my baby-sitter will have sex with me because she's very fond of cute little boys. She will then get the disease that I just caught.

When Mom and Dad get back, Dad will take the baby-sitter home. On the way, he'll jump the baby-sitter's bones, and he'll catch the disease.

Then when Dad gets home from the baby-sitter's, he and Mom will go to bed and have sex, and Mom will catch it.

In the morning when Dad goes to work, the milkman will deliver the milk, have a quickie with Mom, and catch the disease, and HE'S the S.O.B. that ran over my frog."

3250. A Google filter really cleans up RRAP

It seems that most of the spammers and flooders on here are posting through Google Groups. I've been testing out two newsgroup filter rules which really clean RRAP up by killing all Google posts as well as the first followup to all Google posts. The improvement is instant, and it looks like I'm not missing anything by deep sixing Google.

Just filter the Message-ID header so that the string "googlegroups.com" will cause the post to be killed. To get rid of the first followups to google posts (which are most likely to contain a quoted Google post), filter the References header for the regular expression "googlegroups\.com.$" so that any post which contains the string "googlegroups.com>" at the extreme right of its References header is also killed.

I've decided to keep Google in the kill file from now on. Only when I'm interested in seeing what the idiots are doing will I disable the anti Google filters.

In November 1999, real-life stress was playing havoc with my (Douglas Adair N8WWM) emotions and OCD. I had been off medication and out of therapy for years, and I needed a place where I could talk about personal issues. Searching under OCD and gay, I discovered the old BrainPhysics discussion board and decided to post. I thought I was joining a board full of gay people with OCD. Only ten minutes after I had started reading the most recent posts, however, I realized that something was wrong: The folks with gay fears were clearly not gay. It took another five minutes for me to figure out what HOCD was and why so many people had gay obsessions. "Well, duh!" I thought. "This is an OCD board. Of course they have false obsessions."

Before my own OCD was treated, I had suffered for years with obsessions about natural disasters, religion, my health, and being rejected. What I saw in the HOCD obsessions mirrored the anxiety, checking, illogical thinking, and broken record quality of everything I had experienced. HOCD felt real to its sufferers just as my own obsessions had felt real to me. Again, duh! OCD always feels real. If it did not, it would not be OCD. It plays with your mind, making you believe lies and doubt truth.

I would later learn that truly gay people may also get HOCD, but that they falsely fear that they are heterosexual. Bisexuals with HOCD have the false fear that they are attracted to only one sex, usually the one they are not currently involved with. These facts alone should help straight HOCD folks to see that they are indeed straight. HOCD is an illness, and who but a gay HOCD sufferer would fear being straight, the thing society prizes? Just as HOCD obsessing over being straight = gay in reality, HOCD obsessing over being gay = straight in reality. Straight folks with HOCD know deep down that they are not gay. But I am getting ahead of myself.

I turned 47 a week ago, and I have been out of the closet for almost seven years. In that time, I have helped other truly gay people come out of the closet. If I thought for a minute that even one of the straight HOCD sufferers on the board was gay, I would do the same for him or her. Yet, while I have done my best to help many on the board, I have helped no one come out of the closet.

If the rich could hire other people to die for them, the poor could make a wonderful living.

The wise man, even when he holds his tongue, says more than the fool when he speaks.

One old friend is better than two new ones.

One of life's greatest mysteries is how the boy who wasn't good enough to marry your daughter can be the father of the smartest grandchild in the world.

Old friends, like old wines, don't lose their flavor.

Any intelligent fool can make things bigger and more complex. It takes a touch of genius - and a lot of courage to move in the opposite direction.

Comments made in the year 1955!

That's only 52 years ago!

"I'll tell you one thing, if things keep going the way they are, it's going to be impossible to buy a week's groceries for $20.00."

"Have you seen the new cars coming out next year? It won't be long before $2,000.00 will only buy a used one."

"If cigarettes keep going up in price, I'm going to quit. A quarter a pack is ridiculous.

"Did you hear the post office is thinking about charging a dime just to mail a letter?"

"If they raise the minimum wage to $1.00, nobody will be able to hire outside help at the store."

"When I first started driving, who would have thought gas would someday cost 29 cents a gallon. Guess we'd be better off leaving the car in the garage."

"Kids today are impossible. Those duck tail hair cuts make it impossible to stay groomed. Next thing you know, boys will be wearing their hair as long as the girls."

"I'm afraid to send my kids to the movies any more. Ever since they let Clark Gable get by with saying DAMN in GONE WITH THE WIND, it seems every new movie has either HELL of DAMN in it."

"I read the other day where some scientist thinks it's possible to put a man on the moon by the end of the century. They even have some fellows they call astronauts preparing for it down in Texas ."

"Did you see where some baseball player just signed a contract for $75,000 a year just to play ball? It wouldn't surprise me if someday they'll be making more than the President."

"I never thought I'd see the day all our kitchen appliances would be electric. They are even making electric typewriters now."

"It's too bad things are so tough nowadays. I see where a few married women are having to work to make ends meet."

"It won't be long before young couples are going to have to hire someone to watch their kids so they can both work."

"Marriage doesn't mean a thing any more, those Hollywood stars seem to be getting divorced at the drop of a hat."

"I'm afraid the Volkswagen car is going to open the door to a whole lot of foreign business."

"Thank goodness I won't live to see the day when the Government takes half our income in taxes. I sometimes wonder if we are electing the best people to congress."

"The drive-in restaurant is convenient in nice weather, but I seriously doubt they will ever catch on."

"There is no sense going to Lincoln or Omaha anymore for a weekend, it costs nearly $15.00 a night to stay in a hotel."

"No one can afford to be sick anymore, at $35.00 a day in the hospital it's too rich for my blood."

"If they think I'll pay 50 cents for a hair cut, forget it."

The population of the USA is 300 million.

160 million are retired.

That leaves 140 million to do the work.

There are 85 million in school.

Which leaves 55 million to do the work.

Of this there are 40 million employed by the federal government.

Leaving 15 million to do the work.

2.8 million are in the armed forces preoccupied with killing Osama Bin-Laden.

Which leaves 12.2 million to do the work.

Take from that total the 10.8 million people who work for state and city governments.

And that leaves 1.4 million to do the work.
At any given time there are 188,000 people in hospitals.

Leaving 1,212,000 to do the work.

Now, there are 1,211,998 people in prisons.

That leaves just two people to do the work.

You and me.
And there you are,

sitting on your ass, at your computer, reading jokes.

Nice. Real nice.

And if a class "C" won't work than what class does?

Or will only a class "D" work for some dummies!

Do you know what a class "D" amp is?

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

Walker's Food Products Company Recalls Four Bean Salad Because Of Possible Health Risk
Contact:
Mr. Robert Gudde
816-472-8121

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- February 28, 2008 --- Walker's Food Products Company of North Kansas City, Missouri, is recalling its 16oz., 5-lb. and 10-lb. containers of Four Bean Salad because of potential contamination with Clostridium botulinum, a bacterium which can cause life-threatening illness or death. Consumers are warned not to use the product, even if it does not look or smell spoiled. Botulism, a potentially fatal form of food poisoning, can cause the following symptoms: general weakness, dizziness, double vision, and trouble with speaking or swallowing. Difficulty in breathing, weakness of muscles, abdominal distension, and constipation may also be common symptoms. People experiencing these problems should seek immediate medical attention.

The recalled Four Bean Salad was distributed to distributors in Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, and Iowa for ultimate distribution to retail stores and restaurants. The product in the 16 oz. containers was packaged under the Kay's Gourmet brand name. The product in the 5-lb. and 10-lb. containers was packaged under the Walker's Food Products Co. brand name. The containers are round clear plastic packages, which have an expiration date stamped on the bottom surface. The expiration dates subject to recall are 12/23/07 thru 04/5/08.

No illnesses have been reported to date in connection with this problem.

Walker's Food Products became aware of the problem after being notified by another company they had received beans that had been recalled due to being potentially contaminated with Clostridium botulinum. The manufacturer of the beans and FDA are continuing to investigate the source of this problem.

Consumers who have purchased 16 oz., 5-lb. and 10-lb. containers of the Four Bean Salad are urged to return them to the place of purchase for full refund. Consumers with questions may contact the company at 1-800-725-2372.

Recall -- Firm Press Release

Baxter to Proceed with Recall of Remaining Heparin Sodium Vial Products
Contact:
Erin Gardiner, (847) 948-4210
Deborah Spak, (847) 948-2349

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- DEERFIELD, Ill., February 28, 2008 - Baxter International Inc. announced today that the company is proceeding with the voluntary recall of all remaining lots and doses of its heparin sodium injection multi-dose, single-dose vials and HEP-LOCK heparin flush products.

The company initially recalled nine lots of heparin sodium injection multi-dose vials on January 17, 2008 as a precautionary measure due to a higher than usual number of reports of adverse patient reactions involving the product and suspended production earlier this month.

Given the widespread use of this blood thinner and the impact a product shortage would have on operating rooms, dialysis centers and other critical care areas, the FDA and Baxter concluded that removing additional lots and doses of Baxter's heparin from the market earlier would have created more risk to patients requiring heparin therapy than the increased potential for experiencing an adverse reaction. Accordingly, the FDA and Baxter decided not to recall all Baxter heparin vial products at that time. The FDA has now concluded that there is sufficient capacity on the part of other suppliers that Baxter's recall will not jeopardize access to this drug, and has told Baxter that the company can now proceed with recalling its remaining heparin sodium injection and heparin flush products.

Although the vast majority of the reports of adverse reactions have been associated with the multi-dose products, Baxter is taking the precautionary step of recalling all remaining heparin sodium injection and heparin flush products that are currently on the market. In addition to the previously recalled lots of heparin sodium injection 1000 units/mL 10mL and 30mL multi-dose vials, Baxter's recall will now include the remaining lots of those products and heparin sodium injection 5000 units/mL 10mL multi-dose vials, heparin sodium injection 10,000 units/mL 4mL multi-dose vials, heparin sodium injection 1000 USP units/mL, 5000 USP units/mL, and 10,000 USP units/mL single-dose vials, and all HEP-LOCK and HEP-LOCK U/P, 10 USP units/mL and 100 USP units/mL vials, both preserved and preservative-free.

This recall does not involve Baxter's heparin pre-mix IV solutions in bags: heparin sodium in 5% dextrose injection and heparin sodium in 0.9% sodium chloride injection.

"We have assurance from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration that there is an adequate supply in the market to meet the demand for these critical and lifesaving drugs," said Peter J. Arduini, president of Baxter's Medication Delivery business. "The safety and quality of our products is always our highest priority, and we will continue to collaborate with the FDA as we work to determine the cause of the increased rate of adverse reactions and resolve this issue."

Nearly all reported adverse reactions have occurred in three specific areas of product use - renal dialysis, invasive cardiovascular procedures and apheresis procedures. Reported adverse patient reactions have included: stomach pain or discomfort, nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, decreased or low blood pressure, chest pain, fast heart rate, dizziness, fainting, unresponsiveness, shortness of breath, the feeling of a strong or rapid heartbeat, drug ineffectiveness, burning sensation, redness or paleness of skin, abnormal sensation of the skin, mouth or lips, flushing, increased sweating, decreased skin sensitivity, headache, feeling unwell, restlessness, watery eyes, throat swelling, thirst, bleeding tendencies and difficulty opening the mouth. Some of these reactions, particularly profound and refractory hypotension, may be severe or life-threatening.

Customers have been instructed to discontinue use and segregate the recalled product from the rest of their inventory. Customers should then contact Baxter to arrange for return and replacement product. Customers with recalled product purchased indirectly should contact their wholesaler or distributor for return and replacement product. Customers with questions may contact the Center for One Baxter at 1-800-4-BAXTER (1-800-422-9837). Representatives will be available twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week.

Linear amplifiers which are added after a transmitter are usually class AB which means they are biased below cutoff but will draw current when activated. The class AB amplifiers have good linearity at RF frequencies. When amplifying an AM or SSB signal a linear amplifier must be used or the audio will be distorted. When amplifying FM, CW, RTTY, or digitally modulated RF signals a class C amplifier can be used and will give the greatest efficiency. Thus many amplifiers sold to use on VHF FM radios are not linear and can not be used for SSB VHF transmission.

Almost two years ago, the voters of AUK gave Mark Morgan the Golden Killfile award because his posts were so not worth reading.

http://www.club127.net/auk/search.php?search=morgan

Mark Morgan, alias "an old friend"

Golden Killfile, August 2006

In fact, they are so boring that Mark hasn't won an AUK award since, and rightfully so. That didn't stop his fanbois, who persisted in crossposting their responses to Mark into AUK so that Mark would follow up, thus exposing the object of their devotion to more attention from kookologists. They've also hijacked threads in AUK, fr0gged Mark, and crossposted them back into rec.radio.* groups. That the kookologists have consistently ignored their efforts didn't stop them.

Bois, I have news for you. Sometimes, persistently trying to get an unworthy candidate nominated will result in the presenters themselves getting nominated. That happened the first time Mark Morgan was presented, when the "Outer Filth Trio" of raap won three awards.

http://www.club127.net/auk/search.php?search=outer

The "Outer Filth" 'Trio'

George Pickett Memorial Trophy, August 2006
Special Ops Cody Memorial Purple Heart, August 2006
Order of the Holey Sockpuppet

I think it's about time for Mark's fanbois to get another award for their Jonah fishing.

For their bone-headed persistence, utterly boring and unimaginative presentation, and sheer fuckwittedness, I nominate Mark Morgan's Fanbois from rec.radio.*, who are, if not the "Outer Filth Trio" themselves, their direct heirs, for the Golden Killfile for their being "unworthy enough to be ignored by everyone on the face of the earth."

Seconds?

said NO, whereas I proved you wrong with your own words that you did in fact get acid on your tooth..now STFU snaggle tooth.

you can't find the main context either.

Linear amplification is not required for FM. The carrier is constant.

No the issue was about your teeth.

The first post was "why do I floss? To keep my teeth from looking like marks tooth?

You responded, "you have no idea what my teeth look like or anything elsae about my apearence"

Then someone posted "Didn't you post something about having acid poured on your teeth or some crazy shit like that?"

You responded "no I did not"

Take notice that the poster did not ask whether you posted it to RRAP or your blog, just whether or not you posted something about your tooth. Which you did post the information to your blog.
> I did not and correctly stated same

So you did post something about acid on your tooth to your blog. You are wrong once again, but it does not matter what I say, if I say it is black you will say it is white.

YOU are proven wrong.

I don't have an anti gav blog, I told you that when I released the other blog domain. Why would I release my prize of war to you and then keep some crappy blog about your wife???...makes no sense, Besides, you should know my style by now, if it was mine I would be in your face about it, but it's not my work. BTW I forced you to do nothing, even when I had no blog going at all, you kept your dloyd blog, so your logic does not support your arguement.

and you still avoided the question, Why do you think it is okay for you to run a dloyd blog, but complain when folks have blogs about you?

Further, why do you think it is okay to run a dloyd blog when I had no blogs at all? Hypocrite???

I don't use your call, for its intended purpose, which is to identify an amateur radio station on the air. Other than that those particular letters and numbers really have no meaniing on the net, but in using your logic, why do you use my nym with your call...after all you are using "dloydatkb9rqz" yet complain when "dloyd" does the same..hypocrite.

Why can't you accept the fact that you are wrong. you are a hard headed LD SOB

http://khkb9rqz.blogspot.com/2007/05/update-on-wisdom-tooth.html

Mark said, "the full story was having the wisdom tooth cap it was aicid damaged in an army accident"

Now, I am not a dentist, but this tale of Mark's smells to high heaven.

How, pray tell, did one of his wisdom teeth become "accidently" damaged by acid in an "army accident"???
Did somebody hit you in the mouth with a corroded battery cable, Mark? Were you using Drano for mouthwash?
And why weren't the rest of your teeth effected? If, indeed, you had any.

Markie sure spins some odd tales....

Not my post fucktard, but I always wonderd how it can only affect one tooth and how did it get inside of his mouth without damaging his face, lips and gums? Teeth are pretty damn hard, but skin and gums are not...how did it damage his tooth without eating a hole in his mouth/gums/face.

I don't use your call, for its intended purpose, which is to identify an amateur radio station on the air. Other than that those particular letters and numbers really have no meaniing on the net, but in using your logic, why do you use my nym with your call...after all you are using "dloydatkb9rqz" yet complain when "dloyd" does the same..hypocrite.

And of course let us NOT forget about the times that Mark has posted over the callsigns of at least five other Hams on at least one blog.

Yes it does, the original problem was never solved...here we are two years later..same old same old.
Is Mark still crying about the "Gav" blog?
I will go on record, again, in stating that Dloyd had nothing, NOTHING to do with it.

And to not allow comments from Mark on the blog? Oh, boo-hoo. Cry me a river, Mark.

And besides, the KD8CTL blog does allow comments, Mark. Trouble is that the admin chooses to delete most of yours and that is what rankles you the most.
How DARE somebody have the unmitigated gall to delete one of your comments, eh?
Just as you do with YOUR blogs, the admin picks and chooses which comments to allow or delete.
Yours is a double standard.

www.kd8ctl.blogspot.com is a good start.
You've posted over four calls that don't belong to you.

I never said you did, but you do use my nym for your blog address..hypocrite
////////////

See what you get for being kind? You should NEVER have given in to Mark's plaintiff whinings when he wanted "his" blog back that he accused you of stealing.
Never, never, never....

It is for just this reason that I will never, never, never relinquish the KD8CTL blog to Mark. He was so busy crying about the blog you took over that the dimwit couldn't see three steps ahead and plan accordingly. He should have done what I did, but poor Mark was not forward-thinking enough. He was too busy crying about stolen wedding directories to see more than three feet in front of him.
The blog will forever remain mine simply because I know the very existence of it irritates him.

I decided to respond to your floods because you have become an insufferable ass.
If you can attack a poor, innocent child, then don't act shocked when you and your misfit wife are attacked in return.

Mark. Again. You LOST your blog because you were simply too stupid to renew it before Dloyd took advantage of your gaffe and discovered that it was there for the taking.
He got one up on you, now live with it and stop crying about it.
He came by your old blog quite legally. He did NOT steal it.

Get that through your thick skull, will you?

He did NOT return 'stolen property'. Nothing was stolen. You, through your own gross stupidity, LOST it.
The fault is yours.
Stop whining.

You, Mark, should be eternally grateful to Dloyd for feeling sorry for you and for allowing you to gain control of the blog you lost through your simple-mindedness.

Dloyd owed you nothing. He stole nothing.

You were simply stupid and Dloyd took advantage of your lack of intellect.

Heck, you were "Open Season" and still are, for that matter.

Nobody has asked this that I can recall, so I will.

Mark has claimed to hold three Masters degrees and has done so on several occasions.

As with his plethora of other lies, who can believe him?

So, Mark.
I challenge you.

What are your three alleged 'degrees' in, and from which college(s) did you earn them from?

In fact, Mark, which college did you graduate from to obtain your Bachelor's degree?

Your turn....

In other words, you have no degrees as you have falsely claimed.

And while you take to task those who refuse to give names and calls and call them cowards, you, by the same token, are just as cowardly as they.
You boast, but cannot back up your false boasts.

You, Sir, are a liar.
You have no degrees.

Yup. Yawn.

But the fact remains that you are a psychological misfit.

Now, Mark...about you being a Geophysics major, which one of your "degrees" was that under?

Was it your first Master's degree?
Your second?
Your third?

And why is it that you cannot write or spell beyond a third-grade level?

Why, with your alleged education, cannot you find a job??

The discussion here is amplification, not reception. The type of detector in whatever receiver you want to use has no bearing on the types of amplifiers that can be used to amplify an FM source.

I do not understand why you feel compared to depart from conventional types of amplifiers required for various modes. Class C is used for FM because of

it's greater efficiency, typically in excess of 70%. Linearity is not required as the amplitude of the signal is not changed. Certainly, you could use AB1 or AB2, but efficiency will not be as great, will require more transistors or tubes, and a larger physical footprint.

Class C is defined as an anode conduction angle of less than 180 degrees. In Class C, the amplifying device is deliberately not operated linearly. Instead, it is operated as a switch in order to reduce resistance loss. The anode conduction angle in Class C operation is usually made as short as is possible. In effect, the tank circuit makes the RF output sine wave--like a bell that is struck at a constant rate by a hammer. This is similar to the principal behind the spark transmitter.

The efficiency of a typical Class C amplifier is high. When compared to a Class AB1 or Class AB2 amplifier operating at the same power input, a Class C amplifier will deliver a received signal increase of about 1db--in other words, 1/6 of 1 S-unit. However, significant trade-offs are required to achieve that 1/6 of 1 S-unit. As is the case with Class B operation, the distortion from Class C operation is so high that SSB operation is precluded. Only CW, FM or FSK operation is practical. The harmonic output level from a Class C amplifier is substantial. Extra filtering is usually needed to control harmonic radiation.

Usually when one copies the above they would reference the source instead of giving the impression that it was of their own authoring.
